GM's Note

This week's run was from Dom and Alice's house. Surprisingly, as it is not far away or difficult to find, the turn out was rather smaller than expected with only 33 runners at the start. There were no guests when the circle was called but Pam the Spam arrived later on. Nice to see you Pam, try to come more often. Karen and the General also came later on and as always it was good to see them too. The Hare, Dom, told us that the run was medium and there were two checks and a bar and a T-junction to negotiate around. The pack set off and we wound our way through the housing estate with Dom popping into sight on his bike now and again. He went behind a bush to take a photo and of course in true hash fashion someone yelled that there was no need to set paper when you are going for a leak! Mick Chee took note and had a quick pee. Soon we were in the trees and the front runners were pushing forward to get ahead but they were stumped by the first check which brilliantly kept the pack together. It was of course on and up through scraggy looking saplings. We continued to go up and wind round the hill. The second check was easier to break going off on a defined path to the left. Eventually we hit the top of the hill and then began to wind our way back down. This was very thorny and there were vines at all levels. All we heard now was thorns right, thorns left, thorns everywhere, foot vine head vine, body vine, mind your eyes etc. It was like having an old long playing record that had a nasty groove scratch. We moved onto the concrete path and those of us that like to jog set off at a comfortable speed. Mini Sausage is obviously still injured as he was walking this bit. Several guys peeled off to wallow in the fresh water. We came out by the Indian Temple and the paper went down the main road. I saw Speed hound turn off onto a smaller side road and I decided to follow as I don't like the main road either. She had no trouble finding her way and I stuck to her back like a leech. As Speed hound said a good run, better than expected. Gradually the runners returned and for once no one was lost! We then turned our attention to the food which was, as always at Alice's house, superb. As everyone was sitting very comfortably and enjoying conversation, we did not interrupt the bonhomie with a circle. Many thanks to Dom and Alice for their hospitality, good run and delicious food.

I discovered last night, that Richard Jones is still in hospital. All the Harriettes join together in wishing him a really speedy recovery and hope we will see him at the hash again soon.

It was also good to see Monty after the run, as he has missed a lot of runs due to various health problems. He was his usual self except he only had one beer and as he didn't run, he didn't climb into the beer van and strip naked!

All members please note that the beer sold at the site is now RM 6. Please do not complain as beer prices were raised last year but Sammy has kept the price down for us until now. Unfortunately, he can not continue to do so. Look forward to seeing you all next week.

Poof! ... God gave him a rowboat and strong arms and strong legs and he was able to row across in about an hour after almost capsizing once..

He was turned in to a woman.....

She checked the map, hiked one hundred yards up stream and walked across the bridge.
