GM'S notes

Hi All,

When the circle was called the hares had not returned from setting the run. The guests were not introduced as they were not standing in the circle. The run was announced as medium and we were to go in by the pipe. No other information was available. Good news, however, as Kiew Hwee Ching (a young harriet!) became a member.

The run started off with some other groups' paper (Penang Sports Club) and some runners followed that paper rather ours. The run wound upwards in the usual pleasant manner and then the descent seemed similar to start with. But then we reached the tarmac road and hurtled down it groaning because of the creaking knees. Next was a steep slippery slope to take us off the road but I couldn't see the point of that when we were almost at the Botanical Gardens main gate so I just continued on the road.

Most people came back in the light but the guests, Dan and Jessie, came back in the dark. There were 37 members at D'Juice but the evening seemed quiet and the crowd dispersed into small cliques. The members who went to Perlis 999 run the day before, with the exception of Sperm Whale, did not turn up- perhaps they are the noisy ones!

There was a very brief circle. First on ice was Silent Man who had completed 400 runs – many congratulations. Next on ice was G-man for getting faster each week. Uncle Bee was iced for talking too much in the circle. Eddie the punk who was hare had disappeared so Mick Chee was iced as the contractor. The run, food and location were applauded.

Many thanks Eddie for arranging a good, if somewhat quiet evening. See you all next week. On On Funny Stuff!!!!

A lawyer and a Maori are sitting next to each other on a long flight. The lawyer is thinking that Maoris are so dumb that he could get one over on them easy. So the lawyer asks if the Maori would like to play a fun game.

The Maori is tired and just wants to take a nap, so he politely declines and tries to catch a few winks. The lawyer persists, and says that the game is a lot of fun. "I ask you a question, and if you don't know the answer, you pay me only $5; you ask me one, and if I don't know the answer, I will pay you $500" he says.

This catches the Maoris attention and so, to keep the lawyer quiet, he agrees to play the game.

The lawyer asks the first question. 'What's the distance from the Earth to the Moon?'

The Maori reaches in his pocket pulls out a five-dollar bill and hands it to the lawyer without saying a word.

Now, it's the Maori's turn. He asks the lawyer, 'What goes up a hill with three legs, and comes down with four?'

The lawyer uses his laptop and searches all references he could find on the Net. He sends e-mails to all the smart friends he knows, all to no avail. After an hour of searching he finally gives up. He wakes up the Maori and hands him $500. The Maori pockets the $500 and goes right back to sleep.

The lawyer is going nuts not knowing the answer. He wakes up the Maori and asks, 'Well, so what goes up a hill with three legs and comes down with four?'

The Maori reaches in his pocket, hands the lawyer $5 and goes back to sleep.
