GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

A good crowd assembled at the Twin Towers water tank. It was the first Thursday of the month so FTAC joined us to double the number of runners. There were 45 members and Bendover, Tin-Tin and Julie joined us as guests. Iceman told us that the run was medium to long, that the track was very slippery and there was a bar and a check. He also warned us to run by the sign with 'Bees' as there was a hive on the next tree.

Just as we set off to the start Hardcore's car came screeching to a halt and Goodyear and Hot Lips were delivered.

The run went up the hill by the side of the drain which had water gushing down it. Even at this early stage the runners were getting very spread out – those that could cope with the steep, slippery slope getting way ahead of the less nimble. The climb up seemed to go on for ever and then we looped round to the left. We saw the bee sign but luckily for us the bees were either off searching for nectar or they had moved on. The bar was dealt with and then eventually we got to the check.

The check was cleverly placed with three obvious trails to choose from – one to the left, one straight ahead, and one to the right. An FTAC guy went off to the right and we didn't hear anything from him. Goodyear went straight ahead and for a while we heard nothing. No one seemed to be checking left which we discovered afterwards was the way to go. After a while we heard Goodyear calling but it seemed to be off to the left. However we went straight ahead because that had been the way he had started.

I was running (it was a downhill track so we really were!) with Pussy Cat, an FTAC guy and Felicia and we failed to see the track that Goodyear had found but we knew the way down to Leader Garden and it was starting to get late so we decided to play safe. The FTAC guy and Felicia did not keep up and ended up heading away from Leader Garden! After a good run in we were back at the site.

The food was eaten and everyone was getting livelier as the number of beers consumed grew. But for a few of us there was a nagging worry, Bibi Tulips and Dirdar Singh were still out. I was just about to ask for volunteers to go in backwards when Bibi phoned Mini Sausage to ask him to collect them by car. That problem was solved.

We had a short circle and the first on ice was FTAC GM because he was celebrating his 50th Birthday. Edna had organized a chocolate cake from the Harriets. FTAC sung him several songs and then we all joined in 'Happy Birthday'. Happy Birthday GM. we hope you celebrate many more. He then charged Iceman for not putting enough paper. Iceman's defence was that it was called a check! A charge brought Bibi Tulips to the ice for, although being a fast runner, had to come back by car as she stayed with 2 companions who missed the second check and ended up at TAR college. Just Beer was then iced because she will celebrate her birthday on Sunday. She was also given a chocolate cake from Mike. Happy Birthday Just Beer – Hope Sunday turns out to be a brilliant day. Last on ice were the hares – Iceman and AML. The run was considered good, the food really delicious and the location good. There were no more charges so the circle was closed.

Many thanks Iceman and AML for another delightful Thursday evening.

NB: Next weeks run starts at 7.00pm and is a torchlight run

See you all there. Have a great week.

Funny Stuff!!!!

Dating in the 1960s

It was a hot Saturday evening in the summer of 1961, and Fred had a date with Peggy Sue. He arrived at her house and rang the bell.

'Oh, come on in!' Peggy Sue's mother said as she welcomed Fred in. 'Have a seat in the living room. Would you like something to drink? Lemonade? Iced tea?'

'Iced tea, please,' Fred said. Mom brought the iced tea.

'So, what are you and Peggy planning to do tonight?' she asked.

'Oh, probably catch a movie and then maybe grab a bite to eat at the malt shop, maybe take a walk on the beach..'

'Peggy likes to screw, you know,' Mom informed him.

'Really?' Fred replied, his eyebrows rising.

'Oh yes,' the mother continued, 'When she goes out with her friends, that's all they do! Screw, again and again!!'

'Is that so?' asked Fred, incredulous.

'Yes,' said the mother. 'As a matter of fact, she'd screw all night if we let her!'

'Well, thanks for the tip!' Fred said as he began thinking about alternate plans for the evening.

A moment later, Peggy Sue came down the stairs looking pretty as a picture, wearing a pink blouse and a hooped skirt, and with her hair tied back in a bouncy ponytail. She greeted Fred.

'Have fun, kids!' the mother said as they left.

Two hours later, a completely dishevelled Peggy Sue burst into the house and slammed the front door behind her.

'The Twist, Mom!' she angrily yelled to her mother in the kitchen.

'The fking dance is called the Twist!!!'
