GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

37 members attended Whatever's run at Tar College Shop Lots. When the circle was called we had a short silence to show respect for Hard Khaw's mum who passed away last Saturday. The Bunny – Whatever- was called and thanked for doing the run at the last minute. She told us it was a medium run and we should take particular care on the last 20 minutes of the run.

So off we went and I was walking by the side of Beauty Queen who was bemoaning the fact that she was gaining weight but as I was clearly in need of some extra we would start sharing.

We clambered up to the right of the old PBA structure over the ridge and down to open area in front of the new water tank. The path into the jungle was very overgrown and the footing very uneven. Mark's and Spencer likes to really go for it and he was cursing as he tripped and stumbled along.

However we then got onto the path that skirts round the ridge and found the first check. Those of us that started to scramble up were thwarted because the paper was found down a terrace and continued to skirt to the right. At this point quite a few of us were idly dreaming that as Whatever's wrist was still weak, the run would be one without a challenging up. ....Well there's no harm in dreaming!

There were a few short very slippery bits to get over before we got onto the pleasant track up to the top. This was quite a climb and the on down was really welcome. We were all quite worried at this point because it is one of the standard on downs when we are parked at Charlie Market.

But we didn't need to panic, the trail swung back to the cemetery below the blue and pink flats and on to the main road. If the cars had not been relentlessly roaring by and tooting madly, this would have been a perfect road run back to the site. To cap it all there was a magnificent orange globe sunset to distract us.

We had a brief circle. The first on ice was Take Care. The charge was that even though he went in last, he came out first! Next on ice was Car Boot (SK) who was thanked for producing delicious food at the last minute and wished a happy birthday. Smiling Horse (Vithia) was then on ice because he told me on the run that Itchy Bai must have set it because it had all his trade marks. However, this was misinformation. Karen and Fancy Pants then took the throne and were wished Bon Voyage as they are returning to Germany for a cool spell. As there were no charges from the floor we then put the Bunny – Whatever - on the ice. It was deemed a good run, the food delicious and the run site very appropriate for a great Thursday evening.

Many thanks to Whatever and her co hare Gman for putting on a great run at the last minute

Funnies

At a Doctor's surgery one morning a patient arrives complaining of serious back ache. The doctor examines him and asks him,

"What the hell did you do to your back?"

"The patient replies, "You know that I am a bouncer at a local night club? Well, yesterday morning I got home to my flat quite early and heard a noise in my bedroom. On entering I knew someone had been sleeping with my wife as my wife was lying naked in bed and the balcony door was open.

I rushed out the balcony door and did not find anyone. As I looked down from the balcony I saw a man running out of the building and he was dressing himself. I grabbed the fridge and threw it at him. That's how I strained my back.

The 2nd patient arrives looking as if he has been in a car wreck. The doctor says, "My previous patient looked bad, but you look terrible. What the hell happened to you? The 2nd patient replies, "You know I have been unemployed for a while now Doctor? Well yesterday morning was my first day at my new job. I forgot to set my alarm and was running late. I was running out of the building, getting dressed at the same time, and you won't believe it but I was hit by a fridge.

The 3rd patient arrives; he looks even worse than the other two patients did.

The doctor was shocked. Again he asks, "What the hell happened to you?" "Well I was sitting in a fridge ...
