Newsletter 2012

Notes from the VGM

On to Francis corner was Big Willy run site. On arriving, there was no one in sight. I must be early. Slightly later James, Take Care arrived. Then Big Willy riding on his little bike appeared smiling as usual. The weather was humid and warmth in the earlier evening but as we started the run it became cool. There are 26 members and 3 guests, Flying Kiwi, Julia Street and Thai T Pussy. The Hare mention Medium Run, Hare forgot the number of check. Okay Lah! Adventure Run .

Icing started at 8.30pm, only a handful were around. ( I come to understand that Thursday Hashers would like to have more time for social drinking and chit chatting than Icing. We could Cancel the Icing in the future ) Glen and the 2 ladies were on Ice. Hare was on Ice for the Good run, Good Food- wild boar curry and etc.

Thank you Willy for the good evening and good meal. ON ON

Our sincerest condolences go to Molly Oon whose father passed away on the 3rd September. The funeral is on Tuesday 7th September. The cortege leaves 14 Lilitan Hargreaves at 11am and then to the crematorium at Batu Gantong.

Burst

It was already 5.50pm when I was past Adventist Hospital in Pulau Tikus area, on my way to the run site, when I chanced upon a familiar car just ahead of my motorcycle. Ah! It was none other than my bosom Hash buddy Fancy Pants. I sounded my horn but he did not notice, so when the traffic lights ahead turned red I pulled up to him and tapped on his window. We had a quick chat and then off we went when the lights turned green.

Being on a motorcycle I arrived ten minutes before he did!! I was changing my footwear and then waited for him to change into his T-shirt and of course his fancy pants and shoes. It was 6.20pm by the time we shot off into the jungle after getting instructions from the Hare.

I was quite sick and hence let Fancy Pants lead and I just tagged along. The start was very easy and as we climbed the usual obstacles would hinder our speed, with a few slips here and there.

Up one ridge and down again and we continued to follow the paper trail which then lead us up a 70 degree slope onto the new laterite track where Annelies and Justbeer were standing to greet us. They pointed us to the trail which continued on the other side of the track but they had no intention of taking it themselves!! It was quite a steep climb with equally steep descents and we soon caught up with Rambo and Silent Man at a stream crossing. Rambo was having some difficulty ascending the slippery slope on the other side whilst Silent Man seemed to climb like a Serow!!

A little further and I saw Bibi Tulips and Horse trying to grab whatever they could find to help themselves climb up. By then my head was was not feeling heavy anymore and I found myself ahead of Fancy Pants. I asked Horse if he would like to “pressure” me as he usually tries to, claiming to “push” me for 50 metres but only gets about 10 before he slackens pace!! He replied “Give you chance today!” while he was panting for his own breath!! I then darted up the very steep slope for some 30 seconds to reach the ridge where I waited for Fancy Pants who also managed to be ahead of Horse.

On down the other side and we caught up with TT who was alone. The three of us then moved along quite closely with me in front looking out for paper. Crossed a brook, up the other side, down again and crossed back with the trail going in the direction we came from which panicked TT. He was shouting “We’re going round in a circle!!” to which Fancy Pants told him to be confident and just follow paper!! After many meanders the trail led us down to a stream with treacherous rocks which eventually got us back to a different part of the same laterite track we had crossed earlier. What a relief fro a few moments earlier I was not sure if we might be doing a loop as I could see the trail we had just crossed nearby in the vicinity of the brook!!

Fancy Pants and I then descended the track a little faster than TT as it was very familiar to us. On the way out the orange setting sun was enveloped by a cluster of clouds making it a memorable evening on a wonderful Hash day! We came back to the run site in 1 hour with TT 10 minutes behind us!!

Funnies

WOMAN'S POEM

Before I lay me down to sleep,
I pray for a man, who's not a creep,
One who's handsome, smart and strong.
One who loves to listen long,
One who thinks before he speaks,
One who'll call, not wait for weeks.
I pray he's gainfully employed,
When I spend his cash, won't be annoyed.
Pulls out my chair and opens my door,
Massages my back and begs to do more.
Oh! Send me a man who'll make love to my mind,
Knows what to answer to "how big is my behind?"
I pray that this man will love me to no end,
And always be my very best friend.

MAN'S POEM

I pray for a deaf-mute nymphomaniac with huge boobs who owns a liquor store and a golf course. This doesn't rhyme and I don't give a shit.

Catholic Horse Racing

One day while he was at the track betting on the ponies and nearly losing his shirt, Mitch noticed a priest who stepped out onto the track and blessed the forehead of one of the horses lining up for the 4th race. Lo and behold, that horse - a very long shot - won the race.

Mitch was most interested to see what the priest did the next race. Sure enough, he watched the priest step out onto the track as the horses for 5th race lined up, and place a blessing on the forehead of one of the horses.

Mitch made a beeline for the window and placed a small bet on the horse. Again, even though it was another long shot, the horse the priest had blessed won the race.

Mitch collected his winnings and anxiously waited to see which horse the priest bestowed his blessing on for the 6th race.

As the day went on, the priest continued blessing one of the horses, and it always came in first.

Mitch began to pull in some serious money, and by the last race, he knew his wildest dreams were going to come true. He made a quick stop at the ATM, withdrew his savings and awaited the priest's blessing that would tell him which horse to bet on.

True to his pattern, the priest stepped out onto the track before the last race and blessed the forehead, eyes, ears and hooves of one of the horses.

Mitch bet every cent, and watched the horse come in dead last. Mitch was dumbfounded. He made his way to the track and when he found the priest, he demanded, "What happened, Father? All day you blessed horses and they won. The last race, you blessed a horse and he lost. Now I've lost my savings too, thanks to you!!"

The priest nodded wisely and said, "That's the problem with most Protestants, you can't tell the difference between a simple blessing and the Last Rites."
