Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

There were 27 members and 5 guests (Mike, Liz, Dominic, Balletto – welcome back on your annual visit and Bommy – a big welcome back – great to see you.)

We were told by Pussy Cat in the circle that it was a medium to long run with 3 bars.

We fuffed about for a bit, looking for the start and then set off inside the construction fence and almost immediately turned right up the steep slippery slope. Just Beer yelled to let the slow runners through as they would need their bums shoved –there’s just no accounting for what turns people on !!!!

We struggled up to the first bar and Good Year told us to cut across left and we soon heard “on paper” and joined the mainstream run again. We had hardly moved forward – hadn’t even got back to a rhythm when the second bar was called. Only a few moments later we heard “On On” and cut across to the call. Some of us were soon unhappy as the paper seemed to be facing the wrong way but we consoled our selves with the fact it was current paper and that the FRBs were still confidently moving forward. We went down a bit, up a bit, down a bit and then the real climb up started and huffing and puffing sounds got louder and louder – obviously we had all had a good holiday.

We were just thinking that the “on home must be coming up soon when we saw Good Year coming in the opposite direction and he berated us for doing a reverse run and wanted us to turn around. But we (Take Care, Speed Hound and myself) decided that it couldn’t possibly be any shorter to go back our way so we decided to continue doing the reverse.

Not long after we bumped into TT Yeoh – more berating and threats of icing – and then we met Rambo who listened to us and decided that to come our way made more sense – we had told her it was very undulating!

Take Care who was trying his best to get us safely back, told us to get a move on as it would be dark soon. Luckily we were soon back at the cars and shortly after everyone else appeared.

A good but quite long run which we had done in reverse –the hare definitely confirmed this!!!

I will leave it to Just Beer to tell you about the rest of the evening as I went back early to join my family.

Happy New Year to everyone

See you all next week.

Announcements from the On Sex

I have the hash paper with me so if you need some, please ask me for it.

Please note than fees for 2011 are now being taken by the On Cash. The fee remains the same as last year at RM80. Please pay as soon as possible. Please don't make us keep reminding you to pay as we had to do to some of you last year!!!

Can those in the Hareline above please give me your venues as soon as possible.

Hare of the Day

Pussy Cat

Thanks for a good run and good food.

Down Downs

I am sorry to say but the camera malfunction on the night and therefore we did not get any shots of the night's events. However we have complied shots of the iced members from past photos.

The first to be put on ice was Kim Looi. Not for any real crime but as a thank you gesture for her continued and loyal support of the Harriets and in always trying to bring her Niece along.

Next was Longhair but I'm not really sure of the reason or who put him there but never mind someone had to take the ice!!

Bommy was then welcomed back to Penang and we hope he'll be running for another couple of weeks at least before he once again returns to Australia.

Always great to see you again Bommy!

Take Care was once again iced for not paying attention during the circle. Perhaps we should make him Circle Master as he always has something to say during it!!

Finally PussyCat was asked to take the Ice Throne. We gave her the customary thank you for the good, long but somewhat mixed up run and good food. We also thanked her for stepping in and taking the vacant date since we were finding it difficult to get someone to do this run.
Many thanks Pussy Cat. It is very much appreciated.

Birthday Greetings this week go to:

No One

We all wish No One yet another very Happy Birthday!!

Funnies

BEWARE OF IDIOTS:

- I am a medical student currently doing a rotation in toxicology at the poison control center.
Today, this woman called in very upset because she caught her little daughter eating ants.

I quickly reassured her that the ants are not harmful and there would be no need to bring her daughter into the hospital.

She calmed down and at the end of the conversation happened to mention that she gave her daughter some ant poison to eat in order to kill the ants.
I told her that she better bring her daughter into the emergency room right away.
- Early this year, some Boeing employees on the airfield decided to steal a life raft from one of the 747s.

They were successful in getting it out of the plane and home.
Shortly after they took it for a float on the river, they noticed a Coast Guard helicopter coming toward them.
It turned out that the chopper was homing in on the emergency locator beacon that activated when the raft was inflated.

They are no longer employed at Boeing.
- A man, wanting to rob a downtown Bank of America, walked into the Branch and wrote this, "Put all your munny in this bag."

While standing in line, waiting to give his note to the teller, he began to worry that someone had seen him write the note and might call the police before he reached the teller's window.

So he left the Bank of America and crossed the street to the Wells Fargo Bank.
After waiting a few minutes in line, he handed his note to the Wells Fargo teller.
She read it and, surmising from his spelling errors that he wasn't the brightest light in the harbor, told him that she could not accept his stickup note because it was written on a Bank of America deposit slip and that he would either have to fill out a Wells Fargo deposit slip or go back to Bank of America.
Looking somewhat defeated, the man said, "OK" and left.
He was arrested a few minutes later, as he was waiting in line back at Bank of America.
- A motorist was unknowingly caught in an automated speed trap that measured his speed using radar and photographed his car.
He later received in the mail a ticket for $40 and a photo of his car.
Instead of payment, he sent the police department a photograph of $40.
Several days later, he received a letter from the police that contained another picture, this time of handcuffs.

He immediately mailed in his $40.

- A guy walked into a little corner store with a shotgun and demanded all of the cash from the cash drawer.

After the cashier put the cash in a bag, the robber saw a bottle of Scotch that he wanted behind the counter on the shelf. He told the cashier to put it in the bag as well, but the cashier refused and said, "Because I don't believe you are over 21."

The robber said he was, but the clerk still refused to give it to him because she didn't believe him.

At this point, the robber took his driver's license out of his wallet and gave it to the clerk. The clerk looked it over and agreed that the man was in fact over 21 and she put the Scotch in the bag.

The robber then ran from the store with his loot.

The cashier promptly called the police and gave the name and address of the robber that he got off the license.

They arrested the robber two hours later.

- A pair of Michigan robbers entered a record shop nervously waving revolvers.

The first one shouted, "Nobody move!"

When his partner moved, the startled first bandit shot him.

- Arkansas: Seems this guy wanted some beer pretty badly.

He decided that he'd just throw a cinder block through a liquor store window, grab some booze, and run.

So he lifted the cinder block and heaved it over his head at the window. The cinder block bounced back knocking him unconscious.

It seems the liquor store window was made of Plexi-Glass.

The whole event was caught on videotape.

- I live in a semi-rural area.

We recently had a new neighbor call the local township administrative office to request the removal of the Deer Crossing sign on our road.

The reason: "Too many deer are being hit by cars out here! I don't think this is a good place for them to be crossing anymore."

Stay Alert!

They walk among us ... they Reproduce !!!!!!!!!!!
