Notes from the On Sex

Hi Everyone,

The CNY Run drew 32 enthusiasts and 8 guests last Thursday. We even had the FTAC to keep us company as they were running from the same place, but I also suspect it was the roast pork that had a few of them sauntering over to us!!

The usual pre announcements were made and then the run started with some fire crackers let off by the FTAC group. And off we went. The Harriets run was an old favourite and familiar trail going to the left of the Hash Highway, going up towards the hill through fresh mounds of Wild Boar turned soil.

As we made our way up Rosie, Vithia, and I noted the many papers from previous runs and from different Chapters, proving that although Charlie Market can be a very smelly place it is still a popular runsite for many!

We steadily climbed the hill, the one where the bees used to be and finally made it to the top. It may be an old familiar trail but it doesn't make it any easier to get to the top!! After a brief rest we turned right and headed along the ridge track but we by passed a few on down and the paper lead to the Lily Pond exit where we dropped onto the main Hash Highway. At this point we met 3 elderly Chinese gentlemen who were a little confused and were complaining bitterly about going round in circles since the arrows on the hiking trails were not correct nor informative enough. We pointed them in the right direction and left them to it.

The first runner was back in about 50 mins and the rest trickled in after that. The last to return was Grasshopper with his 3 Japanese guests in tow at 8.10pm so a 2 hour hike for them. But they were none the worse for it and in fact thoroughly enjoyed the exercise.

Some of the members did not stay for the dinner as they had Chap Goh Meh dinners to attend themselves so only those who had nowhere else to be stayed behind for the dinner. There was plenty of Chinese 'Chai Boey' soup, roasted pork, and other dishes and vegetables but it seemed a subdued affair perhaps because of the missing members. However moods brightened when the local communities started their firework displays and from our vantage point we could see at least 3 different sets lighting up the cloudy but still dry sky as the Chinese from all over marked the end of the old year and welcomed the Year Of the Rabbit in 2011. My dogs will be well please too as for the last couple of weeks they have been cowering from the fireworks and I hope now they will get some peace!!

There was no circle this week, just a pleasant night of chat and some drinks.

Thank you to our Chinese members, the organisers and all contributors for such a good evening.

See you all and more I hope next week.

Funnies

An old, blind cowboy wanders into an all-girl biker bar by mistake.
He finds his way to a bar stool and orders a shot of Jack Daniels.
After sitting there for a while, he yells to the bartender, 'Hey, you wanna hear a blonde joke?'

The bar immediately falls absolutely silent.

In a very deep, husky voice, the woman next to him says,

'Before you tell that joke, Cowboy, I think it is only fair, given that you are blind, that you should know five things:

- 1. The bartender is a blonde girl with a baseball bat.
- 2. The bouncer is a blonde girl.
- 3. I'm a 6-foot tall, 175-pound blonde woman with a black belt in karate.
- 4. The woman sitting next to me is blonde and a professional weight lifter.
- 5. The lady to your right is blonde and a professional wrestler.

Now, think about it seriously, Cowboy. Do you still wanna tell that blonde joke?'

The blind cowboy thinks for a second, shakes his head and mutters,

'No...not if I'm gonna have to explain it five times.'
