Notes from the VGM

Hi Everyone,

In spite the raining evenings, Baipass – Dr Suran was blessed with fine weather throughout the evening. The Run set off at the Indian Rover Club in Rifle Range. The Hare announced, it is a medium run with 2 checks. 20 odd members then headed towards the FRU headquarters and then diverted to the normal path, crawling under the fallen fence to reach the housing estate.

The previous rainy days left the ground soggy and slippery with uneven tracks. I followed paper only to meet an unfavourable encounter with the bees again, but not as bad as the previous attack.

The cement path made it slightly easier to walk to jungle track. Crossing the stream, Richard and Bendover met up with me and we moved on up towards the Durian Plantation, with many premature durian on the ground. Here we could not find paper anywhere. What happened Baipass to all your papers?? I understand you went to check these prior to the run. Well Well only reason I can think off is that the Farmer wants to protect his little ones (durians)!

Okay, no more paper in sight we had to find our way onwards. Horse, Khaw, Richard and I ascended the stone steps. Good thing Horse found the paper trail at the higher level where the vegetation remained dense on the rocks, it was wet, slippery, dark and soggy, similar to a cave. We continued to climb and finally reached opening into the farm land of nutmeg trees and lemongrass bushes. The scenery was beautiful from this point.

After a satisfied rest we decided to continued finding our way out and descended the cement slope between station no 39 and O ground to Rifle Range flat. We stopped and viewed the Goddess of Mercy, the Ayer Itam Dam and the Middle Station of the Hill Railway.

Richard was recruited almost Instantly to the Club “ Welcome Richard.” I put him on ice as our good gesture to welcome him. Cheng and Frank Bolton was welcome too. Although Cheng was recovery from an injury, Frank was not spared from sitting on ice. Samantha and Silent Man were iced for SCBing since they came out from a different direction.

Last but not least, Bai Pass was rewarded, by sitting on ice for a pleasant yet taxing run, a good location, good food and many thanks for the good job done. The evening was cool and everyone of the 31 members and 2 guests had a good time. THANK YOU !

Funnies

Two nuns are ordered to paint a room in the convent, and the last instruction of the Mother Superior is that they must not get even a drop of paint on their habits.

After conferring about this for a while, the two nuns decide to lock the door of the room, strip off their habits, and paint in the nude.

In the middle of the project, there comes a knock at the door.

"Who is it ?", calls one of the nuns.

"Blind man," replies a voice from the other side of the door.

The two nuns look at each other and shrug, and deciding that no harm can come from letting a blind man into the room, they open the door.

"Nice boobs," says the man, "where do you want the blinds?"
