Newsletter 2095

Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

It was something new for me to see a “New Car Park” but then it was mainly for “Bus Only,” behind the shop lots. Benji and Elisa took photos standing on the parking lot with the magnificent view of the Pagoda as the back drop and with me as the photographer.

Spike Annie came with her new porcupine hair style looks good on her. She asked me to touch her hair do. Yes, it was Spiky alright. It was hot with the sun shining on us as there was no shade at the parking lot

The attendance was good and well supported by members and guests. Guest for the week Gee man’s nephew, sister, Gila Ho, and Bina. Kali joined us today “Welcome to the club.” The Welcoming on Ice Session included Goodyear, Bina and James for 2012 Committee for Tuesday Kaki. Our old lost member Eugene was back welcome. Do come back again!

Spike earned her name „Spiky“ by providing us with a meal so nice and spicy -- Spiked with Sambal on LAM MEE.. YUMMY! YUMMY!! YUMMY!! We all enjoyed the wonderful evening with the fresh breeze coming from Ayer Itam hill to cool us down after a spicy meal. Thank you very much Spike Annie for the Run, Freshness environment and your tasty and Spicy LAM MEE, though you were not feeling that well. I appreciated your effort and cooperation. “Well Done Spike Annie”

To Justbeer and Mike what can I say expect a BIG THANK to both of you for all your support, in helping me on my CPU work, organized the Club’s data over the 3 year period, and for being such dedicated members of the club. I take this opportunity to wish you both a very enjoyable, well earned and restful holiday. I definitely would like to see you both back with us soon after your holiday aboard.YEA!..... ON!>>>>>ON!>>>>>>ON!

To Ma and Will I wish you both a wonderful and enjoyable holiday too. ON. ON.

Burst

Run Number :2094

Vanue: Air Itam, big car park below KLC- temple

Hare: Spiky (Annie Lim)

Scribe: Money

Arrived at run site at 5.10 pm together with Rupiah and parked my car at the coolest spot possible at the empty car park, next the great figures from China for the KLC- temple.

Take Care and White Lion arrived shortly after and lamented/ confirmed Rupiah about the hot run site without any shade or other means to avoid the hot sun.

How I got this job of writing the burst, our GM (Rambo) and myself was finishing the last third of the run together. So at one point she ask me whether she can ask me for an favor, she talked / asked so sweet and somehow warm heartily, so I curiously (gep po chee) myself , I asked her what is it about. This is how I got this job, because she really knows how to tackle very friendly the soft side of a hasher.

The run; circle was called to order on time with ~ 32 runner in attendance, including two guest runners, the chief hare (G- Man) announced a short+ run with one check and waved in the direction were to find the start paper, he said something about use your brain, but what about those hashers (if any present) without?

Before however, I talked to the co hare G- String, and informed her that I will be sweeper today and look after Rupiah, she ask me to look also for her two guest, but doubted me, not to be one of the front runners instead.

So, off we run/ walked and talked towards the first paper. After about 100m following the road the paper leads us up the hill to the right on a paved farmer track. Only ~ 150m up the trail there were some confusion at the front of the pack, when we the back runners catch up, the front runners had already convinced the old farmer to let us go past his private land following our paper trail, which he had denied first, Take Care and others found easily the right tone and slang to make him change his mind so quickly.

Shortly afterwards the paper lead us of the trail into the jungle or better to say overgrown former farmland. The steps from one level to next where quit challenging and resulted in a kind of traffic jam, which I usably avoid in trying to be in front, but today finally I wanted to prove G- string wrong and stayed behind.

After some steps and bashing through thorns we heard, checking, TTO and White Lion found the paper on to the right and into more open farm land, with a dirt trail to run, following paper. Here it was time for the last remaining front- medium runner's (Long hair & co) to go/speed off ahead. The paper followed a very nice trail along the hill with good views down to Air Itam and far as the Komtar. The papers lead us after some time off the dirt trail down the hill (surly for many to early) passing an old farm house, which must have been a wonderful place ages ago. Passing some chili garden we continued on granite slabs to a dirt track again skirting the hill with more good views points. After a while we were on or last on down in the woods next to one of the many different clan temples in this area and followed the massive granite steps on home paper.

Here I agreed the favor for the burst.

Beauty Queen, Rupiah and Silent man where a short distance behind us on the home paper when Iceman came down the track, on his second round.

We all reached the run site together, where the cooking and serving of the food had started. The run was a real good Harriets run, maybe for those who run at other chapters a bit too short, but for me it was a very good run and premium time spent together.

Thanks to Spiky and the hares mention, including co hare Sai Seng.

Funnies

1. A woman arrived at a party. While scanning the guests, she spotted an attractive man standing alone. She approached him, smiled and said, "Hello. My name is Carmen." "That's a beautiful name," he replied. "Is it a family name?" "No," she replied. As a matter of fact I gave it to myself. It represents the things that I enjoy the most - cars and men. Therefore I chose "Carmen". "What's your name?" she asked. He answered "B.J. Titsengolf."
2. Two old drunks in a bar. The first one says, "Ya know, when I was 30 and got a hard-on, I couldn't bend it with either of my hands. By the time I was 40, I could bend it about 10 degrees if I tried really hard. "By the time I was 50, I could bend it about 20 degrees, no problem. I'm gonna be 60 next week, and now I can almost bend it in half with just one hand" "So," says the second drunk, "what's your point?" "Well," says the first, "I'm just wondering how much stronger I'm gonna get!"
3. A man placed some flowers on the grave of his dearly departed mother and started back toward his car when his attention was diverted to another man kneeling at a grave. The man seemed to be praying with profound intensity and kept repeating, "Why did you have to die? Why did you have to die?" The first man approached him and said, "Sir, I don't wish to interfere with your private grief, but this demonstration of pain is more than I've ever seen before. For whom do you mourn so deeply? A child? A parent?" The mourner took a moment to collect himself, then replied, "My wife's first husband."

4. A policeman was patrolling a local parking spot overlooking a golf course. He drove by a car and saw a couple inside with the dome light on. There was a young man in the driver's seat reading a computer magazine and a young lady in the back seat knitting. He stopped to investigate. He walked up to the driver's window and knocked. The young man looked up, cranked the window down, and said, "Yes Officer?"

"What are you doing?" the policeman asked. "What does it look like?" answered the young man. "I'm reading this magazine." Pointing towards the young lady in the back seat, the officer then asked, "And what is she doing?" The young man looked over his shoulder and replied, "What does it look like? She's knitting."

"And how old are you?" the officer then asked the young man. "I'm nineteen," he replied. "And how old is she?" asked the officer. The young man looked at his watch and said, "Well, in about twelve minutes she'll be sixteen."
