Note from the VGM

Hi Everyone,

We drove to Charlie Market and good to see a reasonable crowd. We had four guests (2 FTA members, 1 from Medan and 1 from Melaka).

When the circle was called the hare announce as long, medium and short run. We were puzzled for a minute. Long run to Penang Bridge, medium run follow the paper and short run go to TakeCare's house and come back. Any checks? 3 bars.

The run started off with Mini Sausage leading the group. Up the hash highway and turn right. Some smart ones just keep going along the hash highway until they hit the paper. Anyway it was a good workout.

Most people came back in the light. The evening seemed quite and the crowd dispersed into Small Cliques and some left.

Thanks Bendover for the lovely run, food and beers.

I appreciate Bibi for the scribe and Mini for being misery whip (many thanks).

When I arrived at the runsite, the hare, Benji and the co hares Good Year and Geeman were still huffing and puffing. Benji told me they were setting the run at 11 am, so if it took them 6 hours to set the run, what kind of run will it be???? But it turned out that they started setting the run much later..... A nice crowd came to Charlie's market to support Benji's run. Speedhound was in charge since the GM needed to attend a last supper. The run was medium and it started at the hash high way. The paper went down, but Take Care, Speedhound and a few others could not be bothered to follow it. Kali and myself tried it for a while but we also gave up and went back to the hash highway. Paper went up, but before we could get into some serious climbing Michael Longhair came down telling the paper is on the hash high way again, so again back to the hash highway. Then finally the paper went up. It was a good up, Jorgen, Iceman and our guest passed me. Then Vithia caught up and I followed him. We met Sai Sing, but he was more interested in Tongkat Ali. So he left us. We continued following the paper and enjoyed the run.

Back at the runsite Benji served us good char hor fun. It was a good evening.

Funnies

1. An out-of-towner drove his car into a ditch in a desolated area. Luckily, a local farmer came to help with his big strong horse named Buddy. He hitched Buddy up to the car and yelled, "Pull, Nellie, pull!" Buddy didn't move. Then the farmer hollered, "Pull, Buster, pull!" Buddy didn't respond. Once more the farmer commanded, "Pull, Coco, pull!" Nothing. Then the farmer nonchalantly said, "Pull, Buddy, pull!" And the horse easily dragged the car out of the ditch. The motorist was most appreciative and very curious. He asked the farmer why he called his horse by the wrong name three times. "Well... Buddy is blind and if he thought he was the only one pulling, he wouldn't even try!"
2. After a heavy night at the pub, a drunken man decides to sleep off his drunkenness at a local hotel. He approaches the reception desk, takes care of the formalities and heads off to his suite. Several minutes later, the drunk staggers back to the reception desk and demands his room be changed. "But sir," said the clerk, "you have the best room in the hotel." "I insist on another room!!!" said the drunk. "Very good, sir. I'll change you from 502 to 525. Would you mind telling me why you don't like 502?" asked the clerk. "Well, for one thing," said the drunk, "it's on fire."
3. One night, a police officer was stalking out a particularly rowdy bar for possible violations of the driving under the influence laws. At closing time, he saw a fellow stumble out of the bar, trip on the curb, and try his keys on five different cars before he found his. Then, sat in the front seat fumbling around with his keys for several minutes. Everyone left the bar and drove off. Finally, he started his engine and began to pull away.

The police officer was waiting for him. He stopped the driver, read him his rights and administered the Breathalyzer test. The results showed a reading of 0.0. The puzzled officer demanded to know how that could be. The driver replied, "Tonight, I'm the Designated Decoy."
