GM's Notes

The guests, Addy, John, Bing, Michael, Golden Cock, Rob, Bob, Susu, Victor, Shirley, Bina, Geoff and Joey came to check out the run, the food, atmosphere and perhaps the “veteran” chicks at The General's run at the Info Centre.

The weather looked threatening with thunder and lightning in the sky all around and everybody was impatiently waiting to get going as soon as possible, knowing that it would already be quite slippery and would get worse if it rained.

With the announcements out of the way, the FRB's set off quickly followed by the pack. Some did the whole run, some short-cutted and some just went around the beer wagon!! Details of the run can be found in the burst.

I would like to thank Alastair for a well set run, excellent food and for the very generous 2 crates of beer. The party went on till late!!!!

The Circle

We had many guests for the evening and all were welcomed in the circle.

Rob (Shit in the Pit) was iced by the GM for flaunting his nipples in the circle. However the GM baulked at showing off hers!!!

Guest Addy has done a couple of runs with the Harriets recently. She is impressed with Hash and now she is returning to Portugal where she intends to start her own Hash!! Well Done Addy! Good luck!

The October babies, Justbeer, Grasshopper, Akz Hole, and Ronnie Tour, (Datin was missing), were presented with the now customary end of month Birthday cake. Happy Birthday to you all.

The GM then called out those who completed the whole run. There were ONLY 6!! Pussycat, Spermwhale, Viking, Longhair, Shit in the Pit and Mini Sausage. Well done to you. All the others must have short-cutted!

Tiny then iced the GM and announced that Justbeer had just become a Grandma!! Congratulations from us all!!

The final icing for the evening was of course the Hare of the Day...The General. Our gracious thanks for the run, great food and the free beer. Thank you Alastair not only for tonight but for all your help and support during the years!

Other news:

The 3rd Penang Chapters' Joint Run successfully took place on the 26th October with over 300 registrations. As usual the Harriets were well represented and I thank you for your support. I would also like to thank those Harriets who actively contributed to the day's events namely, Kim Looi, Sai Seng, Akz Hole, who gave their time and effort to help out during the day by serving fruits and clearing up. As always, the Harriets DO when others DO NOT!

Thanks should also go to Frog as run coordinator and all round helper on the day and to Spiky Annie on registrations.

Photos can be found on the website.

The General

Scribe: Tiny

There was a good turnout for the General's run and when the circle was called the guests were introduced before the run was described. The paper was long strips clipped to the trees and small scraps on the floor. No bars, no checks on a medium to long run. Those in need of a short cut should jog back down the concrete path when this was reached.

So off we galloped behind Money Manfred. The start was very familiar so no one was paying that much attention until Money yelled. 'Large snake', cavorted back towards us and then made an upward loop to skirt round it.

It never fails to amaze me how incredulous the hash is. 'What snake, ah?' 'Where snake, ah?' Our rather nonchalant reply 'Stay on paper and you will soon find out,' got everyone sorted and following us on the loop of avoidance.

The run proceeded in a fairly steep and very slippery climb with Sperm Whale cursing the lack of grip on his worn shoes. There was a cacophony of moans, groans, sighs and panting

Not long after this I lost the pack. My group went up the hill and we clearly had paper that looked like the paper we had been following and the rest went to the right and were calling. Because our paper looked good we continued where we were but this was a mistake which we didn't discover until we were over the hill and skirting round. On this stretch we were back on General's paper but it was clearly facing the wrong way. We could of course have turned round and followed the pack back but repeating the same trail and going on a new trail didn't really compete so we stayed to complete the run in reverse.

Lucky for me, Speedhound and Marks and Spencers were in my group and they knew exactly where we were and where we had to go.

It is a great area to run in and has the added advantage of not being littered with construction and contractor's gubbings. Many thanks General. Everyone had a great workout.

Funnies

1) This would be an acceptable reason to laugh at a funeral ..

A very prestigious cardiologist died, and was given a very elaborate funeral by the hospital he worked for most of his life... A huge heart... covered in flowers stood behind the casket during the service as all the doctors from the hospital sat in awe.

Following the eulogy, the heart opened, and the casket rolled inside. The heart then closed, sealing the doctor in the beautiful heart forever.

At that point, one of the mourners just burst into laughter. When all eyes stared at him, he said, 'I'm so sorry... I was just thinking of my own funeral...I'm a gynecologist!'.

The minister fainted!

2) A driver was stuck in a traffic jam at the Putrajaya Toll. Nothing was moving.

Suddenly, a man knocks on the window.

The driver rolls down the window and asks, "What's going on?"

"Terrorists have kidnapped all of our MP's during a sitting of parliament, and they're asking for a RM100 million ransom. Otherwise, they are going to douse them all in petrol and set them on fire.

We are going from car to car collecting donations."

"How much is everyone giving, on average?" the driver asks.

The man replies, "Roughly a litre."

3) A bloke is sitting in his armchair and shouts to his wife:

"WHEN I DIE I'M GOING TO LEAVE EVERYTHING TO YOU LOVE!"

She shouts back:

"YOU ALREADY DO YOU LAZY BASTARD!!!"
