GM'S NOTE:

It has been quite a while we had not had a run at Bkt Jambul. The trails were a maze and one could so easily get lost if not on paper. Lynn Khoo had told us previously that she would be arriving directly from her trip to Korea and hence she had out-sourced it to her co-hares. True to her word the co-hares, Sai Seng, Goodyear and Lucas were there waiting for the Hashers to arrive. We had two returning guests Trigamist and W'Anchor along with Lyna, Jose and Heang and I am very please to say the latter three joined as members.

The beginning of the trail went down at the border of the housing estate and up into the bush. The new members were unfamiliar with the area and under Huges' guidance broke away and took off up the path whilst Silentman, Norjan, Beauty Queen and myself carried on.

In places the terrain looked familiar and in others very unfamiliar. Just when you think you know where you are the trails fan out and one gets disorientated and at one point we came across Motherhen waiting for us as she couldn't find paper. Past station 5 the paper went to the left and we carried on going up. Back into the bush once more and the usual up, down, up down, skirt, skirt began in earnest. The trail crossed the path and ew past banana trees and Galangan shoots. Three migrant boys looked upon us in amusement as 4 veteran women together with a 'bodyguard' past them by. The trail went finally downwards and we exited on to the tarmac road and walked back up the hill to the run-site.

By the time we returned, the run-site was a hive of activity and some of the members were already on their 2nd helping of the Bunny's 'Bak-kut beehoon' which was delicious even though, as I found out later, it was vegetarian. I never realized that vegetarian 'meat' could taste so good! It was much to Pukka Sahib's great pleasure and a well worn trail quickly formed from his chair to the food!!!

Finally we had our circle and icings in the light by the beer truck, although it was more of an oval than a circle. We were nearly all gassed however as, at one point, the local rubbish truck went by wafting its repugnant scent, causing all to hold noses and not breathe in for as long as possible!! It reminded me of Charlie Market when the wind is in the wrong direction!

The atmosphere continued to be lively and relaxed after the circle with many staying behind for quite some time. Many thanks Lynn for all the organizing and for the superb food. I even enjoyed the run!!

CIRCLE:

1. As usual we always like to welcome and acknowledge our guests. Initially we had 5 guests but three changed their status I am happy to say so only Trigamist (London) and W'anchor (Penang) were given the honour of sitting on the ice. It is good to Trigamist back with us once again and he has been a good supporter of the Harriets, returning every now and then and certainly for the 'big' events for the last 3-4 years.
2. Our new members were then presented to the assembled pack. So a big welcome to the Club to Lyna, Jose and Heang. "They came as guests and left as members". I am sure you will have fun with us for many years to come.
3. We then celebrated two special birthdays. Normally we only provide a cake to those whose birthdays (female) are on a Hash day otherwise we recognise all our members birthdays at the last run of the month when a cake is provided and we celebrate together. In this case we bent the rules a little since it was Grandma's (who is our oldest member) 21st birthday once again and needed to be celebrated in style. To keep her company, Renata, who has also just had a birthday was asked to join her. So Happy Birthday to the both of you!!
4. "What's in a name? A Rose by any other name would smell as sweet" so says William Shakespeare but then he wasn't a hasher and hence doesn't know the significance of having a suitable Hash Name. Over the last few weeks Norjan and Jaimey have been patiently waiting to be named by their mother hash, the Harriets. Tonight was the night!!
 - a. Firstly Norjan was put on ice and questioned to at least get to know something about her. From that several names came forward but the name chosen was HOT & SPICY, which seemed to suit her very well. The pack unanimously agreeing.
 - b. Secondly, Jaimey was also questioned in like manner and due to his biker background a name of ROUGH RIDER was again unanimously agreed by the assembled pack.

Both were suitably anointed and welcomed into the Hash family.

5. Sai Seng was charged from the floor regarding the "shitty" run. He had said he 'd had diarrhea whilst setting and to watch out!!!
6. Ah Lai was charged by W'anchor for showing true hash spirit and whilst forgetting his shoes did the run in bare feet!!
7. The last icing for the evening was of course the Bunny who was duly thanked for the organisation of her co-hares and hence having a good run and for the superb food she was able to produce in a short time upon her return. Many thanks Lynn.

Next week we are at Bayview Beach (Original 5) for Manikam's run. See you all there. It should be a great night.

I am sorry to say the Hareline has been changed once again due to a request for a specific date. Please see the hareline for the changes. It once again involves those with runs end of August, September and October.

THE PICTURES:

7th September the Ipoh Harriets are celebrating their 45th Anniversary. Penang Harriets have a great respect for them as they were the first to come and help us set up our own Club 41 years ago.

In recognition of this and to support them it would be great if many of us could attend. Perhaps we could even hire a bus if there were enough of us. Please let Beauty Queen know if you would like to go!

FUNNIES

A Woman's Prayer:

I pray for:
Wisdom, To understand a man.
Love, To forgive him and;
Patience, For his moods.
Because if I pray for Strength
I'll just beat him to death.

After his divorce Mr. Jones realized that poker isn't the only game that starts with holding hands and ends with a staggering financial loss.

A woman went to a doctor and said , doctor, I have a problem. every time I sneeze I have an orgasm. the doctor said, oh really, what have you been doing for it. the woman replied, snorting pepper.
