GM'S NOTE:

The sun came out in the afternoon and stayed for the rest of the day, which was a respite from the incessant rain of late. The larger than usual crowd plus 2 guests, Melons and Gaik, lent support to Lily's run and it was good to see so many turn out. As she had outsourced the setting to Sai Seng and Silent Man, we were assured that if we found it too short we could go around again and again!!!

Cheng came along with me and Silent Man kept us company. Every now and then someone would overtake me and so I ended up at the back as usual. The path took a slightly different detour and we were suddenly at a mini waterfall that cascaded over some slippery rocks. It was a lovely pool.

After that the path went on a small track which I had never gone on and we then back at the pipeline. Even I thought it was a short run when back on the road to the run-site and yet when Bai Pass suggested we go around the Botanical Gardens to get a longer run, I declined.

Back at the run-site no one was really around and on enquiry I found that, because of the nice evening (for once in recent times) most had gone for a walk in the Gardens after completing the short run, so Bai Pass's idea was a good one. As for me, I was still coming to terms with completing a run and COMING OUT IN THE LIGHT!!!

The Bunny had provided fried rice with egg which was delicious and certainly enhanced with the home made sambal. Another great evening! Many thanks to Lily for hosting.

CIRCLE:

1. The actual day was very special for 2 of our members since it was their birthday. Toddy Tan was celebrating his 60th whilst Helmut was turning a youthful 71. Of course being on the day and special too, a birthday cake was presented and after many renditions of "Happy Birthday" in multi languages, the candles were blown out and the tasting began.
2. Next on ice was Anjalai who had escaped her 'punishment' the previous week by leaving early. If you remember last week the rain came just as the pack went off and Anjalai and Lily returned for their umbrellas!
3. Our short and sharp circle was completed with our usual thank you to the Hostess of the evening, in this case Lily@Pussy Cat. It may have been a short run but people still enjoyed it whilst others prolonged their exercise by "doing the Gardens" or as Iceman and the General did once again "doing Cendana". The food was delicious and the evening extremely pleasant. Many Thanks Lily.

OTHER ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FUNNIES

Drunk driving

While walking his beat, a policeman is bemused to find a young man, clearly drunk, staggering about with a key in his hand.

'They've stolen my car,' the drunk shouts. 'It was right here earlier on the end of this key.'

'More importantly, sir,' says the policeman. 'Do you know your penis is hanging out?'

'Oh my God,' wails the drunk. 'They've got my girlfriend as well'.
