GM's Note

The most important event in our Hash is our Annual AGM which falls on 5th March this year which is also the last day of the Chinese New Year....please nominate someone you think can run the Club for you...I am just counting to the number of weeks to full retirement from Hash.

Hash Dues and CNY contributions are due.....i will be collecting them next week

Burst Uncle Bee's run.

After a nice long holiday in temperatures slightly colder than in Penang it was time for a workout in the hills. And what a workout it turned out to be!

Arriving at the runsite it was very nice to see all the familiar faces.

The hares where Sai Seng and Itchy Bai, most likely a long run, no it was medium they said.

Up the hill we went, I was soon passed by everybody. I went with Rupiah and we came at the top of the first hill where there was a check. Later I found out the front runners Good Year and Golden Cock did not connect the check. I think it's rude, but who am I. We found the paper again and we continued up. Rupiah had enough of me being slow and she went ahead. If I would go any slower I probably would fall backwards. The trail was not difficult it was just long. Mini who got caught in the check was behind me and did not want me to be alone so he followed me.

Almost at the end we met up with Silent Man who was waiting for the last runners. We went down on a slippery path and came out in the dark.

We were welcomed back with good food and a cold drink.
