GM's Notes

As we set off to lay the trail for the Thursday run, Ian and I found Rob too fast for us slow runners. We weaved in and out of the bush to an almost dry stream, climbed a bit and bashed through some more towards another (actually the same) streambed and then did a long climb up to the hash highway and then down again to complete the loop.

In the evening we had a smaller crowd than usual as some members were doing an outstation run but we had 10 guests for the evening: King, KC Lai, Richard, Calvin, Glyn, Peter, Susan, William and Sophie. Gordon came as a guest of the Hare.

About 30 mins into the run Peter comes back to the runsite to get his scooter as his daughter-in-law, Sophie had twisted her ankle. She came back with him and soon was applying ice to the damaged limb in an effort to reduce the swelling. As she is a doctor it was indeed a case of "physician heal thyself!!"

Goodyear was back first in under an hour. The rest trailing in over the next hour with the last 3 guests KC Lai, Richard and King returning with Beauty Queen in attendance.

Sai Seng brought the food to the runsite, a delicious Nasi Lemak with chicken curry, which went down extremely well with all. However, the crowd seemed a little subdued on the night so we had our usual quick circle once the food was eaten.

Many thanks to Rob @ Shit in the Pit, for a good but long overdue, run and for the excellent food provided.

Circle

1. Welcome the guests. Please come again.
2. It was two members' birthdays on run day and so we decided to celebrate all the June birthdays this week. Unfortunately the two members were missing, also Alastair had gone and the others didn't turn up either, so it was left to a lone Renata, Pole Dancer, to represent ALL our June birthday members. Happy Birthday all of you.
3. A charge from the floor saw Iceman initially call out the Hare, then the co-hares, so that all three ended sitting cooling their bums. The charge was to thank them (tongue in cheek of course) for setting so many checks when usually Harriets' runs don't have checks. He was really referring to the difficulty in actually finding paper at all in some places on the run!!
4. A second charge from the floor, this time by Michelle show guest Glyn on the ice. The heinous crime was littering by throwing his ciggie butts on the floor. Remember we have to keep our runsites CLEAN and tidy if we want to continue running in some places!!
5. The last icing was naturally to give thanks to the Hare of the Day, Shit in the Pit, for a good run and delicious food.

Subject: Bad day....

Saint Peter is seeing all of the new arrivals trying to go through the pearly gates in heaven. The first applicant of the day explains that his last day was not a good one.

"I came home early and found my wife lying naked in bed. She claimed she had just got out of the shower. Well, her hair was dry and I checked the shower and it was completely dry too. I knew she was into some hanky-panky and I began to look for her lover. I went onto the balcony of our 9th floor apartment and found the buggie clinging to the rail by his fingertips. I was so mad that I bashed his fingers with a flower pot. He let go and fell, but some awnings and bushes broke his fall. On seeing he was still alive I found some super human strength to drag our antique cedar chest to the balcony and throw it over. It hit the man and killed him. At this point the stress got to me and I suffered a heart attack and died."

Saint Peter thanked him and sent him on to the waiting room.

The second applicant said that his last day was his worst.

"I was on the roof of an apartment building working on the AC equipment. I stumbled over my tools and toppled off the building. I managed to grab onto the balcony rail of a 9th floor apartment but some idiot came running out on there and bashed my hands with a flower pot. I fell, hit some awnings and bushes and survived, but as I looked up I saw a huge chest falling toward me. I tried to crawl out of the way but couldn't and was hit and killed."

Saint Peter couldn't help but chuckle as he directs the man to the waiting room.

Saint Peter is still giggling when his third customer of the day enters.

He apologizes and says "I doubt that your last day was as interesting as the two fellows that arrived here just before you."

"I don't know about that" replies the man. "But picture this, I'm stark naked, hiding in this antique cedar chest....."
