On-Sec's Notes

We gave ourselves an extra half hour to get to the runsite knowing that there would be jams along the Batu Feringghi way; we still arrived 20 minutes late. Unfortunately Penang has become very popular and it is always the same story every festive long weekends. There were loads of foreign workers along the road trying to catch the bus at every bus stop and most thought there were accidents on the road. Run was supposed to start at 5pm instead of the usual 6pm but the Hare delayed the run to 5.15 taking into consideration those that might be caught in the famous Penang traffic.

Thanks to the 24 members and 10 guests who braved the traffic. A medium run was announced by the Hare but short for some. Peter, our regular guest from Sydney and Geeman came in at 6.20pm. By the time other hashers started trickling back they were caught in the short rain which had everyone, dinner clubbers and all under the building. One guest hasher came in late as he almost missed the pink paper at the top of the hill.

Delicious creamy chicken stew with chips were served followed by Circle and On-Sec's birthday celebration and durians. Everyone had a great time and more fun and noise when Munfred came with Rupiah's entourage of over a dozen family members from Indonesia. Money was put on ice for disturbing the Circle. More drinking and noise followed. By the time we left at around 10pm the drinking and chattering were still in full gear. A big thank you to the club for the cake . It was a good evening to celebrate my birthday with all my hash kakis.

Thank you Ian Imposter for the run and good food and Rosalind for the delicious cooking.
