GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

There was a bumper crowd for Mini Sausage's run at Tar College. 51 members, 2 guests (Barry McBride and Chicken Thai) and FTAC joined the circle. Mini told us to stay on paper and make sure it was the current paper as there were other varieties in the vicinity of the run and he didn't know where these trails led. He also told the hashers to be wary as there were some deep holes along the trail. Most of us did a big intake of breath at this stage because FTAC hare was Anchor Lim. Both Anchor and Mini like long tough runs so what kind of challenge was today's going to be!

We set off along the usual track and entered the jungle to the left. It was already steep and slippery and this was only the start. The on up went on and on with a few side ridges some to the left and some to the right, over rocks and boulders, under overhanging rocks, through ferns and trees. We lost the slow runners half way up because they decided to turn round.

We climbed to the very top of Bukit Lang which is 470m above sea level so much higher than the average run.

Why is it that the on down which was also steep and slippery seemed so much shorter? We were a bit slow on the last bit as it was getting very dark by then.

We iced Posh (Li Na) first in the circle because she did not leave her car at the site but drove right up to the track – definitely living up to her name.

Next on ice was Mini Sausage who was thanked for the generous donation of RM5000 from his company for the 2000th run. Barry was then iced to welcome him as a guest. Colleen was iced to welcome her back from the States – good to see you again. A beta hash name was given to her as ‘Pentium 3’ but we’ll look out for updates and the final version!!! Ah Nee was iced next and given the hash name Beauty Queen for obvious reasons. The GM was iced for forgetting to welcome the guests at the pre-run circle. Lastly the two hares Anchor and Mini were iced. The circle unanimously voted the run brilliant, the food delicious (especially the homemade sausages) and the location good.

Many thanks Mini Sausage for another great Thursday evening.

See you all next week. On...on....

On a very sad note, our condolences go to Linda Green and Family on the passing of her mother this week. Our thoughts are with you.

FTAC are having their 10th Anniversary run on 6th March 2010. See Invitation Runs for further details. Registration forms are available from me or FTAC.

To enable the 2000th run to be exactly that, we need to get in three more runs between now and the 27th June! We are endeavouring to put in these extra runs starting early next year. They will be official numbered Harriets runs but will be on other days. We will try to make them 'fun' runs or family runs usually on the weekend. If food is to be provided we may have to ask for donations or even go 'Pot Luck'. If you have any ideas/comments on this please let me know. Please help to make them successful.

It's getting to the time of year to renew subscriptions for 2010. Please see the Hash Cash and pay as soon as possible!

Funnies

A blonde and her husband are lying in bed listening to the next-door neighbour's dog. It has been in the backyard barking for hours and hours. The blonde jumps up out of bed and says, "I've had enough of this."

She goes downstairs. The blonde finally comes back up to bed and her husband says, "The dog is still barking. What have you been doing?"

The blonde says, "I put the dog in our backyard, now let's see how THEY like it!"

An old man and woman were married for many years, even though they hated each other. When they had a confrontation, screaming and yelling could be heard deep into the night.

The old man would shout, 'When I die, I will dig my way up and out of the grave and come back and haunt you for the rest of your life!'

Neighbours feared him. They believed he practiced black magic, because of the many strange occurrences that took place in their neighbourhood.

The old man liked the fact that he was feared.

To everyone's relief, he died of a heart attack when he was 98. His wife had a closed casket at the wake. After the burial, she went straight to the local bar and began to party, as if there was no tomorrow.

Her neighbours, concerned for her safety, asked, 'Aren't you afraid that he may indeed be able to dig his way up and out of the grave and come back to haunt you for the rest of your life?'

The wife put down her drink and said,

'Let him dig. I had him buried upside down.....'
