GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

27 members attended Memsahib's run at the Sungei Ara Watertank. It was an unusual site for Thursday so once we had eventually made it (We made a few wrong turns) there was a deluge of calls from people en route wanting directions. It was a joint run with FTAC who were given a warm welcome in the circle. They had set the run and the GM was not yet around so the delegated member came into the circle and said, "Great run. This way". Obviously a man of few words. We did have two guests Tin Tin and Rebecca but I forgot to welcome them – ooops!

It was the usual start up by the water tank but it soon veered off right and down to a tarred track which we followed to the right for a while. Everyone was relieved that this skirting round was a gentle start and would ease our weary muscles into exertion and not leave us aching after.

Inevitably the climb up started and this is where the pack began to spread out but some of the FTAC guys know this area so well that a whole group could amble in from the left at the top and just grin as they slotted in behind the FRBs.

We then had another nice down bit and then back onto a tarred track which we followed for a while but then slipped off to the left and another upward climb. At the top we did a left turn and down for a bit and then we met the in paper but as tiredness was setting in we had to think which way to go. Luckily we chose up and over and back to the tank. It was a very good length enjoyable run.

After a bit of socialising we sat and enjoyed Memsahib's food. Just as we had finished and she had stowed all the gubbins, the heaven opened and the the rain that had been threatening came with vengeance.

Many people disappeared at the first rain drop but Pukka Sahib was prepared and produced a huge new umbrella for the intrepid to shelter under. By the time the rain abated, there were too few hashers left to warrant a circle.

Many thanks to Memsahib for another great Thursday evening.

Funnies

Subject: Some of the finest double entendres on British TV & Radio:

Michael Buerk watching Phillipa Forrester cuddle up to a male astronomer for warmth during BBC1's UK eclipse coverage remarked: "They seem cold out there, they're rubbing each other and he's only come in his shorts."

Ken Brown commentating on golfer Nick Faldo and his caddie Fanny Sunneson lining-up shots at the Scottish Open: "Some weeks Nick likes to use Fanny, other weeks he prefers to do it by himself."

Mike Hallett discussing missed snooker shots on Sky Sports: "Stephen Hendry jumps on Steve Davis's misses every chance he gets."

Jack Burnicle was talking about Colin Edwards' tyre choice on World

Superbike racing: "Colin had a hard on in practice earlier, and I bet he wished he had a hard on now."

Chris Tarrant discussing the first Millionaire winner Judith Keppel on

This Morning: "She was practicing fastest finger first by herself in bed last night."

Winning Post's Stewart Machin commentating on jockey Tony McCoy's formidable lead: "Tony has a quick look between his legs and likes what he sees."

Ross King discussing relays with champion runner Phil Redmond: "Well Phil, tell us about your amazing third leg."

Cricketer Neil Fairbrother hit a single during a Durham v Lancashire match, inspiring Bobby Simpson to observe: "With his lovely soft hands he just tossed it off."

Clair Frisby talking about a jumbo hot dog on Look North said: "There's nothing like a big hot sausage inside you on a cold night like this."

James Allen interviewing Ralf Schumacher at a Grand Prix, asked: "What does it feel like being rammed up the backside by Barrichello?"

Steve Ryder covering the US Masters: "Ballesteros felt much better today after a 69."

The new stand at Doncaster race course took Brough Scott's breath away. "My word," he said. "Look at that magnificent erection."

Willie Carson was telling Claire Balding how jockeys prepare for a big race when he said: "They usually have four or five dreams a night about coming from different positions."

Carenza Lewis about finding food in the Middle Ages on Time Team Live said: "You'd eat beaver if you could get it."

A female news anchor who, the day after it was supposed to have snowed and didn't, turned to the weatherman and asked, "So Bob, where's that eight inches you promised me last night?" [Not only did HE have to leave the set, but half the crew did too, because they were laughing so hard].

US PGA Commentator - "One of the reasons Arnie (Arnold Palmer) is playing so well is that, before each tee shot, his wife takes out his balls and kisses them .... Oh my god!!!!!! What have I just said?!!!!!"

Metro Radio - "Julian Dicks is everywhere. It's like they've got eleven Dicks on the field."

Harry Carpenter at the Oxford-Cambridge boat race 1977 - "Ah, isn't that nice. The wife of the Cambridge President is kissing the Cox of the Oxford crew."

Ted Walsh- Horse Racing Commentator - "This is really a lovely horse. I once rode her mother."

New Zealand Rugby Commentator - "Andrew Mehrtens loves it when Daryl Gibson comes inside of him."

Pat Glenn- Weightlifting commentator - "And this is Gregoriava from Bulgaria. I saw her snatch this morning and it was amazing!"
