Run 1993

Hi Everyone,

There was a good turnout for Toddy Tan's run at the Indian Rovers Club – 43 members and two guests – Viagra and Karen. In the circle a reminder was given- that Friday was an extra run at Bee Gallery, Pot Luck food and 5pm start. The Hare told us it was a short simple run with one check.

We set off at a steady walking pace towards the usual slot by the fence which we followed and then entered the jungle to the right by the side of a shrine which doubled as a rubbish tip! The climb up was pleasant and veered a little to the right and checking was called. Mini had been having a natter so was not first in line but immediately started up the hill and was the first to call 'On paper'.

We then began the left hand loop up the hill to the top. The usual round a bit up a bit came into it. The on down followed the concrete path most of the way. Many runners have knackered knees so most of them slowed to a steady walk

We arrived at the badminton court and the players looked somewhat bewildered to be invaded by a marauding mob shouting ‘Are you?’ it was easy to spot the paper at the top of the steps but from then on we were on our own but most of us knew the way.

Many of us were gob smacked to see that the residents in the low cost apartments just opened their windows and threw out the garbage. The people in the market obviously thought that the local lunatic asylum had been released and were relieved that we ran by them and down Boundary Road back to the run site.

We had a short circle. First on ice was Grasshopper who was rewarded for his hard work the day before – videoing and photographing the orphans we visited in Bukit Mertajam. Next we rewarded Beauty Queen who drove one group to the orphanage and then bought everyone a drink on the way back. She was followed by Woon who as a new member had to be baptized and his hash name is Golden Prick. Justbeer then iced GM – Tiny- for the heinous crime of getting to the check first and then not closing it (perhaps she just wanted a free beer!) Akz Hole then iced Hari hari mau because she came late, ate first, and had stated on a previous occasion that she preferred the cucumber song to the one that had been chosen – she got a dragged out version of the cucumber song. Last on ice was Toddy Tan. His first charge was forgetting to bring any toddy and the second was of course for being the hare. Everyone thought it was a short simple run and that the hare had been very honest. The food was delicious and the location great.

Beauty Queen and Edna then organized a choir over in a corner to practice songs for the 2000th. – that’s the way to go!

Many thanks Toddy for a superb Thursday evening

Run 1994

Hi Everyone,

My second missive of the week!!!

25 members came to the special Wesak Day run on Friday 28th May at Bee Gallery. The start of the run was a little delayed because there were huge jams near any of the Buddhist temples. The Hare was Uncle Bee who told us the run was medium and there was one check.

We set off towards the quarry and entered the jungle at the right side corner. This is a slippery trail with some steep bits and some side precipitous drops but it is well known so we don't notice these things any more.

We wound to the right and up, to the left and up and so on and so forth until we got eventually to the top. We then went over and to the left to the check. I checked up and then down and G- man checked forward. It was down and we had a lovely jog down the open path but just as we were getting confident that we were on the way back, up we went again to the top of the second hill and then over and down the pipe to the site.

Many thanks to Uncle Bee and the One o'clock kaki's captain for setting such a good run.

We then ate a great pot luck meal. We didn't have a circle but sat and quaffed beer and chatted.
