Newsletter 2005

Notes from the On Sex

What a great turn out it was for Sheila's last set run. With 42 members and 15 guests from all over the place. It seems the Harriets are becoming more and more a hit on the International Hash scene. We had 2 virgins, James and Ruth from Perth, Dammit from Townsville Queensland, Cods Wallop from Perth Hash, BJ from Albany Hash Australia, Francylin from USA who is a returning Harriet, Christine and Samanta from Tuesday HK, plus other locals with Texas Tits Kenny Fruit, Darrel the Barrel (+son) and KGB from PiH2. We also had 2 visiting RA's, Yorky Porky and Twin Peaks from UK. If you are wondering what is an RA it stands for Religious Advisor. In other Hashes they are the people who conduct the circle, tell the jokes and sing the songs!

As this was a Harriets night, Twin Peaks kindly offered to conduct the circle to add a bit more of an International flavour to the night and she even did a write up for us as well!! Many thanks.

Thanks also to Whatever, Speedhound and AML for their help during the proceedings and to Pentium 3 who did the burst as she was one of the few who actually did all the run. Many thanks.

We circled round to get some announcements and welcome several guests and then some brief instructions from the bunny. It was a medium run and lots of directions to take lefts and rights, but the group was a bit attention deficient at the start so most of us didn't quite catch the instructions, but off we went.

We took a nice stroll through the neighborhood and then into some tall grass and vines. Once we popped through the grass we encountered some interesting terrain and the hashers leaped like ballerinas, one by one, across small streams and large eroded cuts. Not five minutes in, we reached our first check, or so we thought. Everyone dispersed and flailed about for about 10 minutes to no avail so we all checked back. We nearly sent someone back to get directions as we were so close to the start when finally, it was our guest hasher, James on his Virgin hash who found the mark! I guess we were all being a bit wussy at the start and didn't think the trail would lead us into a tiny stream, just a hard right from the path. It turned out not to be an actual check...probably the turn Sheila warned us about if we were paying better attention.

We jaunted along, relieved we didn't have to make a call to the base camp for directions, and about a second later came to the real check in a big circular clearing. We found it rather challenging to find the trail, but finally Mini Sausage gave the On On call out. Off we were into the jungle, On Up we went. It was a good, challenging On Up, from the looks of things at the start I thought it might be a mild run because the bukit didn't look quite as towering as what I was used to. We had a good climb through all kinds of dry normal dirt, sandy spots, and slip and slide. I started getting passed up on the slip and slide as usual, especially where the darn thorns are. At this point Angelai and Michael Long Hair were long gone far ahead, Tit Tit and Horse caught up with me as we started the On Down.

The rest of the way down was through the beginnings of a new road, muddy and like quicksand in some spots. We wound around and got a couple good glimpses of the beautiful Batu Ferringhi coastline. Balanced across some big drainage pipes taking us over some bigger streams and made our way down through the neighborhood.

It was another great run! A good sweat, a few twists in the trail at the start to keep us on our toes, and as always a lot of fun! Thanks Sheila and best of luck back in the UK, we'll miss you!

The Bunny of the evening

Many thanks Sheila, we'll miss you!

The Circle!!!

By Twin Peaks

A bright, sunny evening in Batu Ferrenghi saw a gathering of the usual suspects, together with visitors and virgins from far and wide for Sheila's good-bye trail. JustBeer welcomed everyone to the run, introducing the visitors and virgins before handing over to Sheila to introduce her trail. Off the runners went. A beautiful trail was completed by, well, not all of the runners as the "lemming effect" reigned supreme once more (more on that later).

First back was Smiling Horse in just 55 minutes – this man must be fit – is he really a hasher?! But wait, all soon became clear as Akz Hole found that Smiling Horse hadn't completed the entire trail, "no paper", "no trail", "I was following....." were among his protests – our concerns that this man is not a hasher are no more - face it Smiling Horse – you just wanted beer!

Slowly the pack arrived back, with the usual excuses for not doing the trail as beautifully laid by Sheila's "little helpers" JustBeer, Rambo and Akz Hole – "no paper", "I was following....." - yeah, right – LEMMINGS! As the last of the pack arrived back Sheila had ensured that delicious and plentiful food for all was there (and enjoyed by all!). As the beer and food flowed and hashers relaxed, JustBeer called up for the circle, introducing Twin Peaks (UK visitor) as guest RA.

But wait, we have RA abuse (visiting RA abuse!) right at the beginning of the circle as Goodyear, clearly still hot and overexcited decided that what he had to say was far more important and was duly, of course, put on the ice to cool down for a while. With Goodyear under control on the ice (boy, he must have enjoyed the ice – he had to be kicked off of it!) the down down's began.

Sheila as bunny for her good-bye run, together with her “little helpers” JustBeer and Akz Hole drank for the excellent trail. Next in the circle were the virgins, James and Ruth from Perth, Australia – welcome to the hash, Ruth and James!

Up came the visitors for their down downs –Darrel the Barrel (Amsterdam), Dammit, Codswollop and BJ (from the land of Oz), Yorky Porky and Twin Peaks (UK).

Since so many did not complete the whole trail (some call this “creative checking”) Twin Peaks invited Akz Hole to describe the trail to help weed out those who actually completed it. Still not clear on the reprobate responsible for leading the pack astray, those that protested too loudly and with the most pathetic excuses - Yorky “I’m a visitor, I had to follow the others” Porky , Darrel the Barrel and Geeman and their whinings seemed the most appropriate victims to take the ice next. One of these reprobates managed to get lost even with a GPS (technology on trail just has to end!).

Twin Peaks then asked for charges from the circle.

Geeman pulled Mini Sausage and Fancy Pants on to the ice. We’re not entirely sure why but it involved a lot of water and beer (the RA being drenched in some of it) and a song in Chinese.

Final charge came from Yorky Porky against James, the virgin. James and Ruth found out about the hash by chance meeting with Akz Hole the day before who invited them along. Yorky Porky told the circle that James had already had 7 beers in the afternoon and had to be woken up to come to the hash (information well hash-confided by Ruth – dobbing on the hash is a good thing Ruth!).

Yorky Porky’s point? Why James has always been a hasher, he just didn’t know it! – and James promptly had another beer to prevent him returning to sobriety.

The last down-down of the evening went to Sheila, accompanied by a birthday cake and presentation of an engraved Penang Harriets tankard (by JustBeer) to wish her Happy Birthday for the day after, thank her for her 5 years loyalty to Penang Harriets and wish her well. A hash serenade by Akz Hole to Sheila rounded off down-down proceedings before a chorus of the hash hymn to close proceedings and commencement of social drinking.

Funnies

Two Christians were lost in the Sahara desert. One is called David, the other is called Michael.

They were dying of hunger and thirst when they suddenly came upon an oasis, with what looked like a minaret of a mosque in the middle.

David said to Michael: "Look, let's pretend we are Muslim, otherwise these Arabs are going to kill us. I am going to call myself Mohammed."

Michael refused to change his name, he said: " My name is Michael, and I will not pretend to be other than but what I am. ...Michael."

The Imam of the mosque received both well and asked about their names.

David said: "My name is Mohammed."

Michael said: "My name is Michael."

The Imam turned to the helpers of the mosque and said: " Please bring some food and water for Michael only."

Then he turned to the other and said: " Well Mohammed, I hope you are aware that we are still in the holy month of Ramadan."

Barber in NY

There was once a very good barber in NEW YORK , who gave Free Haircuts to everybody who came into his shop to have their haircuts.

One day a florist went to him for a haircut. After the cut, he wanted to pay the barber, but the barber replied: 'It's alright, I cannot accept money from you. I am doing community service.' The Florist was happy and left the shop. The next morning when the barber went to open his shop, there was a thank you card and a dozen roses waiting at his door .

A policeman went for a haircut and he also wanted to pay the barber after the cut. But the barber replied: 'I cannot accept money from you. I am doing community service.' The cop was happy and left the shop. The next morning when the barber went to open his shop, there was a thank you card and a dozen donuts waiting at his door.

A Malaysian software engineer went for a haircut and he also wanted to pay the barber after the cut. But the barber replied: 'I cannot accept money from you. I am doing community service.' The Malaysian software engineer was very happy and left. The next morning when the barber went to open his shop, guess what he found there.....
