Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

37 members and a guest (Song) were at Charlie Market for the committee run. Rambo told us in the circle it was a short to medium run with no checks. She said it was a runners run and we should go off and get a sweat up so as to enjoy the meal at the restaurant. We were told to start off by running to Take Care's house.

Off we all stumbled in the right direction but one or two people tried to veer off track because they didn't know Take Care's house and they were redirected. We ran up to the end of Take Care's road, through someone's yard – the dog was definitely irritated by this, but not brave enough to do anything about it and then started to slither up a barren muddy hill.

It was a bit like crossing a bog. When you did get a grip your foot delved deeply into the mud. Extricating it was hard work and after, your foot felt like a lead weight with all the mud stuck to the shoe.

This is a well run area so throughout the early part of the run there was a running commentary on where we were going. On reflection most people got it wrong!

Having gone up and over the mud we then got into light jungle and wove our way up and round the hill to the hash highway. We resisted the urge to run back down it because there wasn't a beer lorry waiting for us.

We followed the hash highway and then entered the jungle where of course there was another steep slope to negotiate. It was here that runners got very spread out. Eventually we got to the top and then there was a good run down with a few hiccup hillocks back to the cars.

Many thanks to the hares for a great run.

People did not hang around because they were thirsty and wanted a beer. The crowd vaporized and most people must have either gone home for a shower or fitted in a side visit because I waited until Monty was back at the site before leaving and when I arrived at White Beach the crowd was very thin.

However, the troops soon piled in and the restaurant was jam packed mostly with members but there were a few guests, most of whom had made contributions to the 2000th.

The barrels of free beer and stout and the delicious food made for a great evening. Many thanks to Uncle Bee and the 2000th Committee for organizing such a successful event to celebrate the 2000th Run. Thanks for a brilliant Thursday evening.

Funnies

PILOT vs PRIEST

A priest dies and is waiting in line at the Pearly Gates. Ahead of him is a guy who's dressed in sunglasses, a loud shirt, leather jacket and jeans.

Saint Peter addresses this cool guy, "Who are you, so that I may know whether or not to admit you to the Kingdom of Heaven ?"

The guy replies, "I'm Peter Pilot, retired American Airlines Pilot from Dallas ." Saint Peter consults his list. He smiles and says to the pilot, "Take this silken robe and golden staff and enter the Kingdom." The pilot goes into Heaven with his robe and staff.

Next it's the priest's turn. He stands erect and booms out, "I am Father Joe, pastor of Saint Mary's in Pasadena for the last 43 years."

Saint Peter consults his list. He says to the priest, "Take this cotton robe and wooden staff and enter the Kingdom."

Just a minute, says the good father, "that man was a pilot and he gets a silken robe and golden staff, and I get only cotton and wood. How can this be?"

"Up here ... we go by results," says Saint Peter, "when you preached people slept; when he flew people prayed."

THE ONION AND THE CHRISTMAS TREE

The family is sitting at the dinner table. The son asks his father, 'Dad, how many kinds of boobies are there?' The father, surprised, answers, 'Well son, there's three kinds of breasts. In her twenties, a woman's breasts are like melons, round & firm. In her thirties & forties, they are like pears, still nice, but hanging a bit. After fifty, they are like onions.' 'Onions?' 'Yes, you see them, and they make you cry.'

This infuriated his wife and daughter so the daughter says, 'Mom, how many types of 'willies' are there?' The mother, surprised, smiles and answers, 'Well dear, a man goes through three phases. In his twenties, his willie is like an oak tree, mighty and hard. In his thirties & forties, it's like a birch tree, flexible but reliable. After his fifties, it is like a Christmas tree.'

'A Christmas tree??'

'Yes dear, dead from the root up and the balls are for decoration only.'
