GONG XI FA CAI TO EVERYONE

22 hardcore Hashers and 1 guest (Gaelle) gathered at Bkt Gambir and kudos to them who braved the awful traffic and light rain. After the usual announcements from the VGM, the Hare announced a medium run waved his hand vaguely in the direction of the On In and off we went.

The rain had settled the dry soil and made it easier to skirt around and then climb the hill. Up the hill we went and stumbled on the path. The paper crossed the path and went downhill. Thinking it was the on down and an easy run, I quickened my pace until the bottom despite it being steep and with very slippery undergrowth. Alas once down Rambo and I followed the path flanked by banana trees but the paper did not take us back to the runsite. It took us to another hill and so a second slow climb ensued. As we trudged upwards the sun started to go down and the view was so beautiful but where were we?? Then it dawned on us that we were overlooking Farlim and so still quite a bit to go yet on the run.

The path still took us upwards but finally we reached the Tea Kiosk on the hillside just as it became dark. Down the other side of the hill we went and the trail back to the runsite seemed to take forever. As it was dark I thought to turn on my torch but was too lazy to get it out but our night vision wasn't too bad and hence we made it back without incident to be greeted by a chorus of "Why were they born so beautiful?" and a much relieved Hare. It had taken us 2 hours to complete and we felt good. The Hare told us however he had actually SHORTENED the run..thank goodness he did!!

Since quite a few of the runners did a runner before the usual circle, the VGM decided to forgo it for this week, however the VGM, did thank the Hare on behalf of the members for setting a very good run and for the delicious noodles and fried rice.

We also welcomed our guest Gaelle who became a new member. Welcome to the club!!

Funnies

On a bitterly cold winter's morning a husband and wife in Belfast were listening to the radio during breakfast.

They heard the announcer say, "We are going to have 8 to 10 inches of snow today. You must park your car on the even-numbered side of the street, so the Snowplows can get through".

So the good wife went out and moved her car as instructed.

A week later while they are eating breakfast again, the radio announcer said, "We are expecting 10 to 12 inches of snow today. You must park your car on the odd-numbered side of the street, so the snowplows can get through".

The good wife went out and moved her car again.

The next week they are again having breakfast when the radio announcer says, "We are expecting 12 to 14 inches of snow today. You must park....."Then the electric power went out. The good wife was very upset, and with a worried look on her face she said, "I don't know what to do. Which side of the street do I need to park on so the snowplows can get through?"

Then, with all the love and understanding in his voice that men who are married to blondes always exhibit, the husband replied "Why don't you just leave the bloody car in the garage this time?"
