Notes from the On Sex

Hi Everyone,

We almost missed the turning to Jln Bukit Kukus and Mike had to make a hasty turn before driving to the end. A few regulars were waiting for us and since I had the cards they were happy to see us turn up.

There were 22 runners who gathered for the run, the rest seemingly put off by either the location or the Hare, who is renowned for setting long/tough runs. Although there were some who had travelled quite a distance who did make it and many thanks to them for showing up!!

Off we went after the announcements and down the road the front runners went. I had an "inside" tip and headed across the waste ground with Fancy Pants, around the back of the digger and on to the farm trail. From there we started to climb upwards and up and up. It wasn't long before the FRB's not only caught up with me but streamed past. Soon Rosie and Suaran were the only ones to keep me company, Fancy Pants having long gone at his usual fast pace. Still we climbed and climbed and climbed, slip sliding on dry leaves and shaley ground. The view was beautiful and the greenery astounding. Then Suaran, who was leading, shouted "we're at the top" and disappeared on to the On Down before we got to him. He was not in sight as we breasted the ridge. How he managed to do the run in his "Crocs" is beyond me but run he did!!

If I thought the On Up was hard and unending, the On Down was a nightmare, as there was not much to hold on to and it was beginning to get dark. By the time we reached the bottom it was pitch black but since Rosie and I both had torches it made it easier to follow the path down until we came to the flats which I recognised from previous runs as a place a distance away from the runsite. We walked back past flats/apartments of various heights, saying how much the place had changed in a short time, in keeping with the rest of the Island but not for the better!!

The Hare and others were waiting when we finally and slowly arrived back at the runsite, where good 'Hor Fun' and roasted duck (courtesy of Suaran I heard later) awaited us. Michael regaled us with a tale that he had a big fright whilst setting as he came across a large cobra. Just as well he told us AFTER the run and not before!!

We did not have a circle since we were late coming back and some members had already left. However Rosie thanked Michael for a good long run and very tasty food. It looks though this will be the last time we will run here as the next day they were going to fence off the area to build even more flats! We did have some curious looks from passersby and a few asked what we were doing. Some even asked if they could buy a beer which they did!!

On On

PLEASE NOTE: Teh Hai Hee (Horse) has invited all Harriets to be his guest at his run for the THK on 8th March at Leader Garden. We thank Horse for his generous invitation.

Can those in the Hareline above please give me your venues as soon as possible.

The AGM is next week at the Water Sports Centre opposite Mar Vista.

Hare of the Day

Michael Longhair

Many Thanks for a good run and good food.

Down Downs

There was no circle this week as quite a few members had already moved off before the last runners came out from the jungle!! The VGM did give Michael a vote of thanks from us all and promised him a "proper" down down at the AGM.

However

Some photos were taken of the members and here they are.

The Evening

Birthday Greetings this week go to:

Bai Pass

We all wish you a very Happy Birthday!!

Funnies

A couple were celebrating 50 years together. Their three kids, all very successful, agreed to a Sunday dinner in their honour.

"Happy Anniversary Mom and Dad," gushed son number one 'Sorry I'm running late. I had an emergency at the hospital with a patient, you know how it is and I didn't have time to get you a gift."

"Not to worry," said the father. "The important thing is that we're all together today."

Son number two arrived and announced, "You and Mom look great, Dad. I just flew in from Los Angeles between depositions and didn't have time to shop for you."

"It's nothing," said the father. "We're glad you were able to come."

Just then the daughter arrived. "Hello and happy anniversary! I'm sorry, but my boss is sending me out of town and I was really busy packing so I didn't have time to get you anything."

After they had finished dessert, the father said, "There's something your mother and I have wanted to tell you for a long time. You see, we were very poor. Despite this, we were able to send each of you to college. Throughout the years your mother and I knew that we loved each other very much but we just never found the time to get married."

The three children gasped and all said, "You mean we're bastards?"

"Yep," said the father. "And cheap ones too."
