Notes from the On Sex

Hi Everyone,

38 members and 3 guests turned up at Lebuhraya Halia for "The General's" run last Thursday. Alastair must have chanted some very powerful mantras as all the gray clouds disappeared just as we had the pre-circle. It was announced as a short run taking about 30 mins for the FRBs and no longer than an hour for the SRBs. I decided to take my time after all it was a short run! But what is it they say about Hashers??????????????

So in by the fence we went and climbed steadily to the top. It is quite a steep on up and it soon had members slowing for a breather. Careful footing was a necessity as the ground was quite dry and shaley too! At the top of the ridge there was Alastair lounging on the ground and I just wish I had brought the camera with me!

As we had reached the ridge so quickly everyone must have thought it was going to be a stroll in the park as was originally announced. We went left and then along a bit and then headed down the left hand slope towards Charlie Market. Across the stream to the other side and on to the network of terraces. Who should pop up here once again none other then The General himself with a smile on his face and lounging again! I thought we would climb up to the highway and then perhaps through the sand pit and back home. NO!! We went around the terraces then back down and then reversed our route to go back the way we came but at a lower level. We crossed back across the stream and circled to our left. Skirting the hill on our right. At one point I heard Geeman asking if we were doing a reverse run. "No", I proudly said as the paper was facing me and on we went along what seemed familiar trails but who could be sure now??

Up and down we went with DOM pointing out Ailia Apartments on our left. We were parallel with the shop lots though in the jungle where we passed by termite ravaged plastic bungalows without a view and continued to skirt. The sound of traffic brought to our attention that we were skirting the Vale of Tempe Rd before cutting inland and up another hill almost reversing our current path. Finally we realised, as we hit the on up, that this was a hill we climb sometimes when running from the Shop Lots area. Fancy Pants passed us doing a reverse run and we knew then that it would take us back to the ridge and after some huffing and puffing we finally reached the point where we had seen Alastair previously. And there he was again....still lounging!!!!!!!!!!!!!! "What took you so long?" he asked as it was well passed the hour he thought we would do the run in.

Back at the runsite (an hour and a half after the start) everyone was talking about how good a run it was and it goes to show that if you do your homework even a 'short' run can be fun even if you do go up and down the same hill a few times it gives you a very good sweat. We did five climbs on this run the highest being about 140m. So not huge by normal standards but excellent.

Syabas to a very good run Alastair and to the good food and free beer later on.

Funnies

Lulu was a prostitute. One day there was a raid. All the prostitutes were lined up outside the police station as they took them in one by one.

As Lulu stood in line, she saw her Grandma coming down the street and was so ashamed, Grandma didn't know her occupation. Grandma stopped to say hi and asked what the line was for.

Lulu, saving face, said that the police were giving away fresh oranges to those waiting. Grandma said wonderful, she loved oranges and got at the end of the line.

When the policeman got to the end and saw her, he was amazed.

He said, "How the heck do you do this at your age?"

She said, "I just take out my teeth, rip the skin back and suck 'em dry!"

The policeman fainted!!!!
