Notes from the VGM

Hi Everyone,

The first person I met was Dr. Bai Pass who was surrounded by a couple of Harriets. Why? What happened to Dr. Bai Pass? Being a friendly and gracious doctor we the Harriets appreciate the first hand, on site and FREE consultation from you. I hope doctor you don't mind bringing your work to the runsite, where you look forward to each week for a relaxation time. Anyway Dr. Bai Pass you will always be special to us Harriets.

What a memorable Vasakhi day for Justbeer and more so being the Bunny for the evening and received kisses from the Bees! Poor you Justbeer! Hope you have recovered by now.

Bunny announced one check. We moved on to the paper trail. I was disappointed to see the green were taken over by concrete building, but nevertheless the paths around building made it easier for us and we could use this place for a future runsite.

As I was climbing up the huge rock on my four limbs, I got distracted by someone's hand clap. I turned around to see Michael Longhair indicating to me that he was stung by bees.

The view from the hill top looking down to the Race Course was beautiful. Pauline too was fascinated by the beauty of the island from this point as she has not been up here for awhile.

Pauline, Toddy, James and I proceeded on our way into the dense jungle, trekking on a gradual, pleasant up hill, while the on down trek, the silence was broken with Spikey's screams of fear of another broken ankle.

Others also enjoy themselves in other ways. There was Dr. Bai Pass and Big Willy taking a dip in the cool pond, see them having fun I could not resist the water that I too had a dip. James did not dip in the pond so I accompanied him onto the dirt trek heading for home.

Group of 42 members and three guest from other chapters joined us today.

Jorgen, from the land of Carlsberg was a guest. He was chosen to sit on Ice as a welcome. Monty was called out next for being late to the run. He was asked to STAND by the ice since we have seen his FULL MONTY too many times!! White Lion and Sheila were on ice to wish them farewell and pleasant journey home. Join us again when you are in Penang. The Penang Harriets always welcome you and to all those who moved in and out of Penang. Beauty Queen was next also for coming late but having definitely non-running shoes!! The injured Bunny was not spared, she had to sit on ice also.

Thank You Bunny Justbeer for the Vasakhi meal of Chapati with sardine sambal, pork keema and dahl plus the pleasant run set. We all thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

Thanks.

Funnies

A little boy hears the word whorehouse in school and asks his father what it means.

His father is quite shocked, and replies: "Well, uh... you go there to... have a good time."

The boy starts screaming and hollering that he wants to go there too, but his father insists that he's too young.

Saturday night his dad and a few friends go to "Suzie's" to "have a good time", not knowing the little boy is following them.

After his father leaves, the little boy enters the whorehouse and tells the Madame that he wants to have a good time.

She's a bit puzzled at first, but being a kind-hearted lady she gives him three doughnuts and tells him to leave.

Later that night he comes home, his parents all worried. His father approaches him first and asks him where he's been.

"IN A WHOREHOUSE!" he screams proudly.

"WHAT? Well... uh... how was it?"

"I managed the first two without any problem, but I just licked the last one"
