Notes from the VGM.

Hi Everyone,

Rainy days are here again! Some like it wet and some like it dry. I guess most hashers like it either way as long as there is a run, food, fun and friends.

I am not always early to the run site except this day, as I had hopes of the run being cancelled because of the bad weather. However I should know that we never cancel a run!! Another earlybird was Dr. Suaran and then Kathy popped up all smiling and eager for this wet run. Her enthusiasm was such that it even caused me to change my mind and look forward to it. Not long after the Hare arrived all concerned about the back-breaking effort of clipping all the papers for his medium run.

After the usual announcements we were off. On the way to the hill Michael Longhair sang an appropriate song he made up in Hokkien regarding the "Rain and Me". All of us had a good laugh!!

Kathy and I didn't realise that we were being left behind and we were the last to start off on the slippery, wet run. We were slow since we took all precautions not to have an accident! I was glad Kathy was my companion as we completed the run in about 2 hours and just as the heavens opened once again!

Sorry to the Hare since I had to postpone the circle due to the weather and that many of the members had already had their food and had gone home. However we do thank you for the good run and the workout it gave me. The food was very appropriate too for such a night...hot spicy curry. Many thanks.

Burst

Run number: 2062
Date: 250811
Venue: TAR College
Hare: Marks n Spencer
Scribe: Texas Tits

The run is Mark Chong's run and I arrive 4:20pm. I saw a few people there at run site and Rosie. The weather all day raining so the ground already very muddy and slippery. The run at TAR college was medium to long with never even see a check since me and Rosie run together and are last one to finish. When I started the run there was very less people, only 20+ because of the rainy weather. As normal at the Hash only a few run in front, but many never pass me and Rosie so the rest I never know where they go. Surely they SCB. The Hare say only 1 hill and down, and this proved to be a be true, but the down was very long and winding and slippery and muddy. The time went by very fast with talking and walking with Rosie, even though the run was long a bit. Before we go up the hill Rosie and I were the last 2 persons at the back. The run had nearly stopped but the darkness was coming soon so we were glad that the Hare put paper a lot. We already down by 8:00, so we were glad we made it before too dark since we did not have the torch light with us. After returning to the run site the heavy rains came again. We were very glad to have finished. Rosie had asked me to do the burst even though I am only a member for 3 weeks. But never mind, I can write with no problem.

The circle was suspended due to the heavy rain and many had already gone back. Only the Die Hard Hashers remained. Alexis say she was coming to the run but she never show up until late after the run already finish. The food is good with a lot left over because of the many who did not show up and those who left early. Thanks to the Hare to have a nice run and many papers on the run.

Funnies

Camilla, the Duchess of Cornwall bought new shoes for her wedding.

During the big day they became increasingly tighter and tighter as the day went on. That night, when the festivities were finally over, and they retired to their room, she flopped on the bed and said, "Charles, darling, please remove my shoes, my feet are killing me!"

Her ever-obedient Prince of Wales attacked her right shoe with vigour, but it would not budge.

"Harder!" yelled Camilla, "Harder"

Charles yelled back. "I'm trying, darling! But it's just so bloody tight!"
"Come on! Give it all you've got!" she cried.

Finally, when it released, Charles let out a big groan and Camilla exclaimed, "There! Oh, God, that feels so good!"

In their bedroom next door, the Queen said to Prince Phillip, "See! I told you with a face like that, she had to be a virgin!"

Meanwhile, as Charles tried to remove her left shoe, he cried, "Oh, God, darling! This one's even tighter!"

At which Prince Phillip said to the Queen,

"That's my boy! He served in the Navy: Once a Rear Admiral, always a Rear Admiral!"
