Notes from the VGM.

Hi Everyone,

It was at water tank, Beverly Hill reminded me of the previous run that took Alexis and guest 41/2 hours to come out. Here I have to make a decision whether or not to take the chance to tackle the slippery ground now.

Kim Looi was the Bunny of the day. James the co- hare. Considering the previous experiences I have to put out my FBI Questioning powers of the type of run and obstructions in the way they have set. They assured me the run was safe and would not take long, as a Medium run within 2 hours.

The Group of 19 members (which increased to 24 members with late comers) and 4 guest – Eve, Frog, Ah Keong and Mr Tan who lives nearby in Beverly Hills decided to join us , equipped with water bottle put in a paper bag. I welcome all of them.

As we trod on the Virgin path of Logs, stones and thorns and this where I had been Pricked couple of time on up. This path took us 15 mins to ascent where we met Mr Tan who was a bit disorientated in his direction and strength.

The kind saviour - Take Care, put a bar across the path to indicate the end of the On up route. On way down, Benji, Horse, James and I made sure Mr Tan and Eve were with us on our homeward down. James and I thought we were the last to leave the jungle. Not so, We saw Khaw and Samatha later on, out from the jungle.

A short circle was called, Take Care was the first on Ice, for completed a run without pain today. He was later on ice again for us to sing him a birthday song He was really really in his birthday suit ... See picture. Well Done, Mike good shot – Lah. Silent Man was iced for always being helpful and looking after the slow runners. Eve and Frog were then seated on the welcoming Ice as unfortunately our two other guests had left. Annelies too had a cold seat for returning to say Hello to us since her hip injury. It was her 1 foot on the ice. Hope you will fully recover soon.

Since Bunny was not around, S.K. and James were on ice for giving us an enjoyable and a good work out run. This lead us to warm and delicious food of Fried Chicken (my favourite) Omelette and vegetable green curry. Thank you Kim Looi for organising the food and a good run. . We missed you lah.

On On

STOP PRESS: Just to let you know that Uncle Bee (Alexis) has broken her arm in a fall whilst run setting last Saturday. She is in a plaster cast but is not hospitalised. We hope you soon recover Alexis!

Many Thanks for a good run, great food

Down Downs

Take Care completed the run without pain it seems for the first time in quite a while. It is great to know you are finally recovering TC.

No sooner had Take Care vacated the ice than we had him back sitting again to sing a Happy Birthday since TC reached the magical 50.

Silent Man was iced for always being helpful to all.

Two of our guests Carry Me and Frog being given a 'warm' welcome.

It was great to see Annelies again after her accident. She may not yet be able to walk unaided but at least she is getting around more and it is great to see her recovering albeit slowly.

Icing The Co-Hares

Since the Bunny was MIA, the co-hares were given thanks for setting a good short to medium run.

Here we see Mini Sausage singing them an impromptu but relevant song.

SLEEPING WITH BOB

The guys were all at a deer camp. No one wanted to room with Bob, because he snored so badly. They decided it wasn't fair to make one of them stay with him the whole time, so they voted to take turns.

The first guy slept with Bob and comes to breakfast the next morning with his hair a mess and his eyes all bloodshot. They said, "Man, what happened to you? He said, "Bob snored so loudly, I just sat up and watched him all night."

The next night it was a different guy's turn. In the morning, same thing, hair all standing up, eyes all bloodshot. They said, "Man, what happened to you? You look awful! He said, 'Man, that Bob shakes the roof with his snoring. I watched him all night."

The third night was Fred's turn. Fred was a tanned, older cowboy, a man's man. The next morning he came to breakfast bright-eyed and bushy-tailed. "Good morning!" he said. They couldn't believe it. They said, "Man, what happened?"

He said, "Well, we got ready for bed. I went and tucked Bob into bed, patted him on the ass and kissed him good night. Bob sat up and watched me all night."
