NEWSLETTER 2164

GM'S NOTE:

Peter and Susan, guests from Sydney, called to ask about the evening's run and as we were already on the way we picked them up and brought them along. The crowd was a bit smaller than usual as some members, just like the beerman, were MIA being in Medan for an invitation run.

The Bunny was nowhere to be seen and neither the co-hares as time approached to start the run. So we headed off in the usual direction and it wasn't long before Money was shouting "On Paper". We then ran into the co-hares who were just about to exit.

The run was a familiar one but is still challenging nevertheless. Crossing the rocks and stream and then climbing onto the pathway the other side and then the long climb up to the black pipe, along the middle ridge and then back down the long path to the PBA where we cut back across and hit home. A good but sweaty run which we all needed.

But there is something else that should be said. Whilst following 'paper' we came across long strips of transparent PLASTIC strewn on the floor and which in the gathering gloom was almost impossible to see. We all commented on how any hasher who valued the environment would use such a medium especially when it would take several lifetimes at least to breakdown but it probably never would. We use PAPER and try to be careful with that but at least it will break down. So please all who set runs use PAPER and preferably UNCOATED PAPER as it breaks down so much faster!!

Back at the runsite, the last to appear were the two guests but kudos to them they completed the whole run despite saying it was a long way down.

Thanks go to Amy for hosting the evening and providing a good workout which was then negated by the good and plentiful food she had cooked herself.

CIRCLE:

1. A special welcome was made to Peter and Susan as they had lived here 30 years ago and had return once or twice. Peter was an old hasher and has done runs here before but Susan was not so sure she had hashed in Penang. I think she would have remembered if she had! But they completed it all so well done to the both of them.
2. All the other guests were then welcomed: Nick, Wild Chicken, Ah Lai, Sunny, Kiam Chye, Bombay and Smiling Tiger. Welcome.
3. Whilst Amy was busy cooking she contracted the trail laying to husband Nick who then co-opted his friends Wild Chicken, Kiam and Silent man to help set. They did say the PLASTIC paper was not theirs though!! I HOPE NOT!!!!!!!!!!
4. Being the last run in the month our usual monthly birthday celebration took place. However the only one in attendance was Jaimey@ Rough Rider, so he had the honour all to himself. In a way it was quite appropriate as it was his 40th birthday last weekend and he had invited us all to celebrate it with him. HAPPY BIRTHDAY to ALL July born members .
5. The last honour went to the Bunny and our grateful thanks were given for a good run and good food. Thanks Amy we know it was a difficult day for you but we really appreciate it.

FUNNIES

Sarah was reading a newspaper, while her husband was engrossed in a magazine. Suddenly, she burst out laughing. "Listen to this," she said. "There's a classified ad here where a guy is offering to swap his wife for a season ticket to the stadium."

"Hmmm," her husband said, not looking up from his magazine.

Teasing him, Sarah said, "Would you swap me for a season ticket?"

"Absolutely not," he said.

"How sweet," Sarah said. "Tell me why not."

"Season's more than half over," he said.
