FOR ALL THOSE WHO CELEBRATE HAVE A BRILLIANT DEEPAVALI!

GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE- CHARLIE MARKET

Joyous Diwali / Deepavali greetings to all celebrating this festival over the next few days.

At Charlie Market the assembled Hashers were waiting for 6pm by mingling, chatting and exchanging greetings, as is the norm. With the announcements out of the way the pack loped off up towards the highway and into the cemetery, which was strewn with discarded mattresses! I wonder if they had been left in a hurry as some Hungry Ghost disturbed the occupants!!

I was, as usual, at the back and in a small group of, Silentman, Beauty Queen, Right Hand Drive, Philip and Mother Hen when we came across the first check – a bar. Now normally being at the back we never have trouble since the check should have been broken and paper laid showing the correct way...but not this time. After some searching we found the trail again and with shouts of “On Paper” off we went again except for Philip and Edna who seemed to have disappeared.

Slow as usual we plodded on. The trail was misleading as every time we thought we were coming to the end another one loomed before us. By the final one up the light went as if a bulb had just gone out and the darkness surrounded us. Only Silentman had a working torch (slap on the wrist for the rest of us) which therefore made our progress even slower as we descended the slippery one down back to the highway and back to the runsite.

Back at base, Iceman asked if we had seen Philip and Edna but we had not since that first check. Soon however a phone call was received and Christine went off to collect the missing duo from Bonsai. On their return the food was served and demolished with gusto by the hungry hashers.

CIRCLE:

1. We had one guest this week. Gabrielle from Switzerland was duly welcomed and sat on the ice despite being 4 months pregnant.
2. Philip and Mother Hen were then called out to tell us how they got lost and ended up far from the madding crowd. Philip explained that he really wanted to have a look at the Hotel Good Hope and hence got himself and Edna lost on purpose!!
3. Next to be 'honoured' were Goodyear, Take Care and Tiny. Each had been given 'joining up' paper for the checks but the excuse for not joining were "I had used up all mine" was not accepted by the Pack as they thought it a heinous crime for back runners find the trail.
4. Right Hand Drive @ Rajan, was then called to celebrate his first actual run on a hash. So he is a virgin no longer!!!
5. It beginning the end of the month it was birthday celebration time and hence all October born members were asked to be front and centre. Only 2 though were present at the time and so Justbeer and Akz Hole accepted the cake on their behalf.
6. Charges from the floor saw Goodyear charge Mini Sausage with having no hash shirt. Mini though had disappeared behind a car to strip off and he was literally caught not with his trousers down but completely off as he tried in vain to nullify the charge. In any event he had to sit on the ice with only fancy underwear (but not as fancy as Fancy pants) and socks to take his punishment.
7. Last but by no means least, the Hare of the Day, Iceman, was called to receive his deserved thanks for a good run and delicious food. Many thanks Eugene.

Next week is our Diwai Run at the Info Centre. I hope to see you all there.

On a sadder note, the Club extends its sincerest condolences to Lucas and his family on the demise of his Mother last weekend. May she rest in peace

FUNNIES

As it is Deepavali time I thought an Indian joke would be appropriate!

An Office Manager at Wal-Mart was given the task of hiring an individual to fill a job opening. After sorting through a stack of resumes he found four people who were equally qualified -- an American, a Russian, an Australian and a Gujarati from India.

He decided to call the four in and ask them only one question. Their answer would determine which of them would get the job.

The day came and as the four sat around the conference room table the interviewer asked, "What is the fastest thing you know?"

Dave, the American, replied, "A THOUGHT. It just pops into your head. There's no warning that it's on the way; it's just there. A thought is the fastest thing I know of."

"That's very good!" replied the interviewer.

"And now you sir?" he asked Vladimir, the Russian.

"Hmm... Let me see. A blink! It comes and goes and you don't know that it ever happened. A BLINK is the fastest thing I know."

"Excellent!" said the interviewer. "The blink of an eye, that's a very popular cliché for speed."

He then turned to George, the Australian who was contemplating his reply.

"Well, out at my dad's ranch, you step out of the house and on the wall there's a light switch. When you flip that switch, way out across the pasture the light in the barn comes on. Yep, Turning on a LIGHT is the fastest thing I can think of."

The interviewer was very impressed with the third answer and thought he had found his man. "It's hard to beat the speed of light" he said.

Turning to Patel, the Guy from India, the fourth and final man, the interviewer posed the same question. Patel replied, (in his Gujju accent!) "Apter herring DA 3 prebius ansers sir, et's obius to me dat the fastest thing is DIARRHEA."

"WHAT!?" said the interviewer, stunned by the response. The others were already giggling in their seats...

"Oh, I can expleyn sir," said Patel.

"You see, sir, DA ader day my tummy was pheeling bad and so I run so fast to the baatrum,, but before I could THINK, BLINK, or TURN ON THE LIGHT, I alredi done it !"

Patel is now the new "Office Manager" at WAL-Mart in Washington. |
