GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE – BEE GALLERY

Li Na's run was changed from the Info Centre to Bee Gallery because of the alcohol ban now in force at the former place. Being a busy lady she out-sourced the setting to our now resident run setter Sai Seng, who, as always, was happy to lend a hand.

Initially there seemed to be only a handful of members turning up but as the clock approached 6pm there was a flurry of activity as the members showed their faces at the last minute. We even had two guests in General Soon and Leo.

Sai Seng gave the instructions and off we trooped towards the Quarry. The walk warmed us up a little before the run proper and at least my muscles were less tight. The start was on the right up the drain and then skirting around the headland close by the Jeep Road and then on up from there. It is a familiar path but with the dry weather it was a little tricky in places as the shaley ground was quite slippery. Some didn't want to do the hard bit and went for a walk around the Quarry grounds and the Botanical Gardens, while the rest soon disappeared from my sight.

Ever slow, Mike and James kept me company and for some reason I felt extremely tired and drained this night. Just before the long climb up I urged James to go on as Mike would accompany me and he soon disappeared from view. Up we went taking frequent breaks until we hit the path coming from the shooting range. The paper went across to the Peace Trail but still not feeling great we decided to turn down towards home and head back. I later discovered the trail went across the Peace Trail and then continued towards number 5 when it then branched off to hit the lower part of the Wild Boar Trail. So it was a good thing that we bailed out where we did as it would have taken me at least another hour or more to complete it all.

Reaching the runsite we saw PSC members also returning from their own run and a few of them were sitting enjoying a cold beer which Mike gladly accepted when offered one. Having SCB'd a few of our members where still out but it wasn't that long before all were returned. By now the numbers had swollen to around 40 members as the Bunny dispensed Nasi Lemak to the hungry Hashers.

Despite the numbers it was a rather quiet evening as perhaps, like me, members were somewhat jaded for some reason. We had a short circle and then returned to the serious business of enjoying the rest of the evening drinking and chatting. It may have seemed a quiet night but at 10.pm when I left it was still in full swing with a significant number still around.

Many thanks Li Na for the evening hosting and to Sai Seng once more for setting the trail.

Last Saturday (22 February) 6 Members attended the Seberang Prai 12th Anniversary Run. There was around 300-400 people present and it was quite an enjoyable time. Once again we were recognised by many Chapters and even Murgan (President of the Hash Council) asked us when we were going to have our next invitation run! We are definitely on the map!! There are photos on the web site.

CIRCLE TIME

1. Our usual 'welcome the guests' opened the proceedings as General Soon took the ice alone as Leo has already left.
2. Hashers have keen eyes but even someone with defective eyesight couldn't miss Wan Lyn's new and brightly coloured orange shoes!!
3. A charge from the floor by Tiny saw Take Care on ice once more for talking too much!! What else!!
4. The Bunny of the Day was the last on ice to thank her for hosting the evening and for the run and food.

FUNNIES -

An Englishman, Frenchman, Mexican, and Texan were flying across country on a small plane when the pilot comes on the loud speaker and says " We're having mechanical problems and the only way we can make it to the next airport is for 3 of you to open the door and jump, at least one of you can survive"

The four open the door and look out below. The Englishman takes a deep breath and hollers "God Save The Queen" and jumps.

The Frenchman gets really inspired and hollers "Viva La France" and he also jumps.

This really pumps up the Texan so he hollers "Remember the Alamo" and he grabs the Mexican and throws him out of the plane.
