NEWSLETTER 2218

GM's Note:

It was very considerate of the Hare to relay paper for the whole run after realising it was far too 'long' for a Thur Harriets Club 6hrs of original runsetting reduces to 2.5hrs. Unfortunately, it was too short for some like Pukka Sahib and Posh who completed the original run and came out after 9.30pm!!!

1st runner completed it within 52mins and most were out by 7.30pm except for the 2 exceptional hasher. Again Circle has to be called Off until the following week.

Please keep our RUNSITE Clean !!!!!Hare of the day is to ensure all rubbish and beer bottles are properly stacked away at the end* of the night.....Please Help YOUR CLUB.*

Burst

Here is the Burst for Mark's Run!

Next week you write burst ah! Uncle B doing a Texas shit on me. Mark Chong's run at Air Itam Dam...damn what a great run site and not to be missed as one would expect great runs here. Medium run shouted the hair and mind the bar or bees if you you don't. There were a only handful of runners as it is as far as "Timbuktu" for some..off we went veering off road towards the playground and into the jungle up the hill round the bend. Melon was leading the way dying to prove he still can lead the pack but we soon caught up with him as he was undergoing air transplant removing bad KL air. Not long he recovered and was back to his old form thanks to our great air. It was indeed a medium run although we were told the hares took 6 hours to set but eventually modified it as it would have been a killer. Along the way, we met Dr. BaiPass on the reverse while some like Speedhound went for the extra mile to satisfy their insatiable need for sweat. By the time we got back, most of the FCBs were back..all went well???? But hey! not with Pukka and Posh secretly having a rendezvous in the jungle, taking on the original run (6 hours set) and did not return until 930pm. Meanwhile Mem was pulling her hairs out thinking of the obvious....well all went well when they both came out safe and sound, Frank with a smiling face and posh with blushing away....on!on!
