GM's Note

X'mas Day Run.....one would not expect a high turnout especially the AngMor's and also the weather has not been too kind lately- Continuously raining for the past 3 days. So what "type" of run would one expect on such a day?

The Hare and coheres (Itchy and yours truly) met at Bee Gally around 4pm. Itchy suggested a walk/run around the Botanical gardens and to slow down front runners by putting a few checks. The idea was good especially in such kind of gloomy weather and most hashers that would turn up today would prefer a walk like this.

The run started from the back of Big Ben Breakfast and after crossing the bridge, the run went uphill for a while and the first check was laid. All in all, 2 bars and 2 checks for such a short run. The run then went across to the Pondanmountain, Quarry and the Botanical gardens with a stop over at an ice cream stall where all the runners were treated with an ice cream cone. Hashers like Datin, Hairdo, Molly and even Kim Looi completed the whole run/walk and enjoyed it. It was not so for front runners like Manfred who took 55mins to complete it and was screwed by all the checks. Well done Itchy! Who would have thought/guess that Itchy, of all the runsetters could come up with such a simple but cunning run on X'mas Day? It is after all..... X'mas Day Run Busybody's Style!!!!

HAPPY NEW YEAR EVERYONE..NEXT WEEK RUN STARTS AT 5pm

On On

Manfred, the one and only AngMor on the X'mas Day Run. A truly Die hard hasher!

Manfred, Smiling Horse and Black Jerman next for not following paper in the run and had to be called back by the hare to do the actual trail instead or they will miss their ice cream cones.

Molly – achieving her 1500 run pewter mug. Well Done!

Hare thanked for a cunning walk/run, free ice creams, beers and delicious Nasi Lemak.
