GM's Notes

Before I write about the evening I would like to say two things:

Firstly the Club extends its sincerest condolences to Rose Jones on the passing of her dear niece. Our thoughts are with you.

Secondly, the controversy of guests, who pays and who does not, continues. After further discussion in Committee and with feedback from the members, it has been decided to revert to our old system that guests of the Hare/Bunny of the day will not have to pay. However it is the Hare/Bunny's responsibility to introduce their guests to the GM or Committee on arrival. All other guests will be charged the guest fee.

We have done the same trails at different parts of the Gardens so many times that it becomes a challenge in itself to set a new run. It was the same this Thursday like many before and so we started in the small car park opposite the mosque. Going up the path we found an old bra which I denied was mine as it was the wrong colour!!

Up we skirted and crossed the hikers' path. Once back in the bush with its lush greenery, beautiful waterfalls and huge trees we continued to skirt until we came upon another hiking track which we crossed over. Sai Seng continued to pass the waterfall on his right and crossed yet another hikers' path. Into the bush once more we came across a stream which we then hiked up to reach another track which we followed downwards to head towards the shooting range and out.

With the absence of Goodyear this week, Money hogged the number one position and did the run in 45 mins which was a good time as some of the run was on hikers' track but some was virgin territory too.

Tasty and plentiful home cooked food awaited all on their return and with some beers and wine offered by the Hare, a short circle, another good evening was had by all. Many thanks Mohan.

Circle:

1. Welcome the guests; Chris, Itchy, (Doris Tan)
2. The GM called upon Tiny and Speedhound to the circle and praised them for completing the long run at the PH3 50th Anniversary run the previous weekend.
3. Two of our favourite visitors must leave us once again to return to the cold of Europe. Bon Voyage to Fancy Pants and Fancy Panties until next year. Safe journey and good health.
4. It was the last run of the month and so the normal birthday celebration cake was in order. Only the GM and Akz Hole were there but they were then joined by guest itchy who is also an October baby. HAPPY BIRTHDAY to ALL.
5. A personal thank you was then given by Sai Seng to Smiling Horse and Silentman for acting as sweepers at the PH3 Run. A gift of the anniversary head scarf was duly presented.
6. The last icing was for the Hare, Black Condom. Many thanks for the run, the delicious home cooked food and the wine and beers.
7. The GM made a request for a rendition of "Swing High, Swing Low" be sung for our two departing members which all joined in. Well done!!
