Newsletter 2333

A total of 17 hashers and two guests braved the unpredictable rainy season and turned up at Bee Gallery for the run. The next two hashes will also be there as a guarantee for shelter in case it rains. Promptly at 6 p.m. VGM announced the Circle with the Hare directing everyone opposite the mosque.

A very slippery run all the way up and down but most were rewarded with subsidised beer and good food prepared by Uncle Bee from her kitchen. By the time most hashers were out there was quite a crowd enjoying the food and cheaper beer. A big thank you to Viking for the run, food and subsidised beer and food.

Circle

20 October, Viking's run at Bee Gallery.

Circle conducted by Counterfeit and Bibi Tulips.

Speedhound asked us (Counterfeit and Bibi Tulips) to help with the circle. However when it was time for the circle Speedhound was nowhere to be seen. So we did the circle ourselves.

It was rather difficult to get everybody's attention, so first on ice was Dieu Lah Sing for absolute not paying any attention, his excuse was that he hadn't heard a thing since he was talking, duh. But it quieted things down so we could continue with the normal circle business. Luckily Samy had brought two ice bags so Dieu Lah Sing stayed for a while on ice as an example.

Guests come forward please. Only one guest remained, Chris, Eric left already. He was put on ice and he told us he really liked the run and the company. We sang him a song he was asked to leave the ice.

Next on ice, Fancy Pants. He wasted Edna's time yesterday because he lost his car keys. Whether he was checking or shagging for his car keys remained unclear. Long story short, Edna found his car keys in one of his discarded fancy pants. Fancy Pants blames it on the house ghost, he took it away but later decided to give the keys back.

Next on ice, Spermwahle, Good Year whispered something in our ears. As a result Good Year was also put on ice for ratting on his mate.

Charges for Spermwahle were that he brought his own beer in the new cooler bag PH2 gave Saturday to its members. He tried to explain why, something to do with his insides but most of it got lost in the "bullshit" song.

Just before Viking had a charge, we got interrupted by 2 serious looking gentleman and we took a five minutes "rain delay". After the "rain delay" we resumed business as usual. The reason for the interruption was that the neighbors had a complaint about the noise.

Viking then put Good Year on ice. He called the General as his key witness to prove that Good Year did the whole run. Good Year claimed that he always did that, which resulted in some noise which sounded to us as disagreement.

Mother Hen was then asked to sit on the ice to finish the story of the lost Keys and the family ghost. Fancy pants butted in so he sat once again on the ice to keep Mother Hen company!

Hare Viking on ice. Viking was thanked for a good run, a bit slippery but weather is beyond everybody's control, excellent food, cooked by Uncle Bee. And last but not least he was thanked for subsidizing the beers. Great evening, great fun.
