Run: 2407

Date: 29 March 2018

Hare: Bai Pass

Runsite: Island Glades, Chinese Temple

There were 6 people, including the hare of the day Bai Pass, waiting as No Choice and I drove in. The afternoon heat was so hot it drained the energy before we even started to set. I am forever amazed at Sai Seng who seems to effortlessly climb the hills, which is in sharp contrast to myself!! The On In was down the road and to the right (often used as the way out). The thick carpet of leaves and rotting vegetation didn't help the climb up as the front setters zig-zagged left and right.

Just below the ridge we came across FTAC members, who were running from Bkt Gambir, doing exactly the same thing. Down and down we went once more, again skirting through thorny dry branches full of ants!! At one point going back up towards the ridge the trail was re-routed and went up a different way. By this time the FTAC trail and ours were following the same track. It was then that they said that earlier they had removed some of Harriets' paper thinking it was from an old run. They were good enough to say though that should any of our members and guests get lost and end up at Bkt Gambir they would give them a lift back to our runsite. We were going to find out in the evening how true their promise was going to be.

Hash House Harriets Penang

We got back to the runsite around 5.00pm and the early hashers were already arriving. Darren and Jungle Jill drove in and got themselves ready to go in early. I informed them about the missing paper and to follow the FTAC one until they got to our paper again. At that point I went home to change hoping that Beauty Queen would pass on a like message to the pack before starting off. Arriving back at the runsite about 6.45pm it was a surprise to see both Darren and Jungle Jill back and even washed and changed. They claimed they never came across the Harriets' paper and decided to return. The rest of the pack however did find paper and started to trickle back in from about 6.50pm onwards. When Silent Man returned it seemed all was well until it was noticed that Fancy Pants was missing!

By 8.30pm various people got phone calls to say he had surfaced at Bkt Gambir having missed the Harriets paper and followed the FTAC trail instead. Somewhat later he arrived back at the runsite after getting the earlier promised lift from a FTAC member.

It was an evening of surprises with the people told about the FTAC paper ended up not doing the run whilst the rest did find paper and completed it all except Fancy Pants who took the wrong route and must have taken a leaf out of Pukka Sahibs' usual run book!! Silent Man stated that Fancy Pants must have been haunted as the Harriets' trail was clearly marked and he didn't see him at all. If he had he would have helped guide him home as we all know he does with our lost and slow runners on many occasions.

Food was served, subsidised beers drunk and the circle commenced.

*Next week we are at Leader Garden,
for Silent Man's run
Please come and support him*

Circle

1. Welcome to the guest which today was Bananaman. He has run before with the Harriets' and even comes to invitational runs with us too.

2. The hare of the day had invited some personal guest to attend and they were also welcomed.

3. Being the last Thursday in the month we celebrated the March babies which the usual birthday cake. Pukka Sahib, Bai Pass and Silent Man the ones being there on the night. But as always we wish ALL our March born members a very Happy Birthday.

Hash House Harriets Penang

4. The evening of the AGM Jackpot became a member but with everything going on that night he wasn't properly introduced to everyone. Well tonight the GM put that right and sat him on the ice for a formal welcome and introduction to the Harriets!! Welcome Jackpot!

5. Fancy Pants, using a charge from the floor, put Silent Man on ice. The crime was being too silent and that despite Fancy Pants calling out he never heard anything from Silent Man whilst on the run!!

6. The GM then put Darren and Jungle Jill on the Ice. They went in early and came out very early having allegedly not found paper and returned to the runsite. But what were they doing in the jungle whilst they were there was the question???

7. The last icing of the evening was the group's thank you to the Hare of the Day Bai Pass. Good run, good food and subsidised beer. What more could one ask??

Many thanks for the evening's hosting.
