GM Note's

Run: 2417

Date: 7 June 2018

Bunny: Broccoli

Runsite: Island Glades, Chinese Temple

After a two week hiatus I got a call from the Bunny's husband, Saylor, asking for paper at 2.30pm on Thursday! I couldn't believe that the run setters hadn't organised having paper to set the run either their own paper and/or the logo paper but expected the Committee/GM to come a running with paper when called. NO WAY!! Please, if you are setting a run ask the previous week for some logo paper and don't forget you are supposed to use some of your own paper too!!

There was a smallish crowd at the start and the poor Bunny was still working when Goodyear (chief co-hare) told about the run which was laid on the back of another Chapter's paper!!! Then off they went.!

Hash House Harriets Penang

As usual some had gone in early just to make sure they came out in the light if it was a long run. Naturally, as the run wasn't that long, the early starters tended to be the first ones to return with Inspector Gadget leading the way with Botak Chin and Skippy following a bit later.

We had quite a few guests, some of which were not introduced apart from 3 from the mainland and Moira a very welcome guest.

By 7.30pm all were back including Woodpecker who wondered in looking somewhat tired. The food was served. The beer was quaffed and the hashers relaxed waiting for the circle.

Many thanks to Broccoli for her virgin hosting with the Harriets! It turned out to be a fun night!

*Next week we are at Lembah Permai,
Shoplots, for Tiny's run
Please come and support her*

Announcements On Sec

1. When a bunny/hare invite guests for the run, then the bunny/hare has a choice to either pay guest fees for them or during the circle when the guests are being introduced to buy the circle beers for them.
2. The outstation run to Ipoh is postponed to a later date.

Burst, by Marks & Spencer

The run started with only a few members at the announcement and start of the run, on a hot and windless evening. The run contractors started the run by complaining of the difficulty in obtaining trail papers, but was rebutted as they could always asked the correct person in charge. So the setters used other chapter's paper but clipped on the reverse sides. The trail head was located beside the temple and immediately the front runners set off the steep steps and slopes. There was no let up as the trail continued up the steep rocky and sandy slope.

It was only about 20 minutes later that there was a respite when the trail turned horizontally, but only for a short distance. That gave our tired muscles a brief rest to let off the lactic acid in our stiffened muscles and the renewed strength was welcomed as we continue to struggle up the steep slope. Almost about 60 metres to the skyline, we met up with the early runners who were by then resting briefly, gasping for air. We had to climb a steep rock surface, aided by the roots of the trees before we managed to haul ourselves onto the ridge top.

I guessed it right when the trial turned right after we reached the ridge. After only a short distance along the ridge we turned left and downhill, heading towards the valley between Bukit Gambir hills and Farlim township. We ran across the farm paths at the valley and then turned left towards the hill top overlooking Bukit Gambir. At the top where there was a rest house frequented by hikers, we continued to run along the ridge paralleled to the valley heading towards Yeap Chor Ee temple. It was an easy run down the ridge and after a "rested" run, we arrived at the Chinese temple at Bukit Gambir. To our dismay we had to climb up a flight of stairs in order to track back to our run site. We had to skirt diagonally and zig-zagged our way on the sandy slopes before we could cut the hill from Bukit Gambir to Island Glades. We were glad when we recognised the roof lines of the Island Glades houses and jogged along the back lane back to our run site. At the run site, some of the runners that had started the run much earlier had by then completed the run. There was a crowd of about 40 in all.

The harriet hosted a wonderful and delicious meal. It was indeed a great and enjoyable run.

Circle

1. Welcome to all the guests.
2. A charge by GM saw Mission Impossible and Saylor on ice. Their crime was not asking for paper and expecting the Committee to spoon feed them.

Hash House Harriets Penang

3. As Saylor left the ice the GM then charged him once more. This time it was for calling her up just after she had arrived back in the country and expecting her to bring the paper and set the run.

4. The GM then charged him once again for knowing weeks in advance when the run would be but not organising the paper and having to use another Chapter's paper to set, albeit turned the other way. This must have been confusing to the early starters as they had left before the announcement.

Hash House Harriets Penang

5. A further charge by Speedhound saw both Saylor and Beauty Queen on ice. In his quest for paper Saylor had called Beauty Queen who in turn called Speedhound who was at work. Then Saylor called Speedhound so on ice they went!!!
6. A charge by Akz Hole put Inspector Gadget on ice. Whilst earlier sitting, drinking and chatting AH noticed that Gadget's shirt was inside out and told him so. Black German complained to AH that he too had noticed and hadn't said anything so that he could charge Gadget later. No worries we'll charge him anyway and so we did!!
7. Bunny on ice. Thank you to Broccoli for her virgin hosting of the evening and for organising a good run and great food.

Our condolences go to Alex (Inspector Gadget) on the passing of his Mother. Our thoughts are with you at this sad time.

We are shocked to hear that Helmut all of the sudden passed away while being in Europe. Our thoughts are with Renata at this very sad time.

Funnies

Two guys were out walking their dogs on a hot day, when they pass by a pub. The first guy says, “Let’s go in there for a pint.” Second guy, says, “They won’t let us in with our dogs.” First guy: “Sure they will, just follow my lead.”

He goes up to the pub, and sure enough the doorman says, “I can’t let you in here with that dog.” He replies, “Oh, I’m blind and this is my seeing-eye dog.” The doorman says, “Ok then, come on in.”

The second guy sees this and does the same thing. He goes up to the pub, and the doorman says, “You can’t come in here with a dog.” He replies, “I’m blind and this is my seeing-eye dog.” The doorman responds, “You have a chihuahua for a seeing-eye dog?” The second guy stops for a second, and exclaims, “They gave me a chihuahua?”
